

House Expected to Vote Health Aid for Needy Older Folk

Efforts Indicated in Senate For Much Broader Program

Washington—(AP)—The house takes up today a state-federal program of health aid for a limited group of needy and near-needy older persons. Indications were the measure will be passed today and sent to the senate, where proponents of a much broader health benefit program for the aged hope to revamp the measure to fit their own ideas.

No such broadening can be attempted in the house. It is taking up the bill under procedures which allow four hours of debate, no amendments, and a take-it-or-leave-it vote.

Long Debate

In addition to provisions for health care, the bill would make a number of changes in the social security laws. The minimum health measure on which the ways and means committee agreed after eight weeks of disputes is estimated to cover perhaps 11 million persons. Benefits might actually go to from 500,000 to one million in a given year.

In coverage, as in many other ways, the proposal differs radically both from a social security-financed proposal backed by labor unions and many Democrats, and from the plan sponsored by the Eisenhower administration. Each of these would cover an estimated 10 to 12 million persons.

The program sponsored by Rep. Aime J. Forand (D-R.I.) would provide hospitalization and other benefits for all social security retirees and would be financed by a rise in the payroll tax.

Joint Financing

The administration plan, financed jointly by the federal and state governments, would help pay for private medical coverage of major illnesses for older persons whether or

Talks Started On Closer Ties For 7 Nations

Britain and West European Countries Look to Merger

London—(AP)—Britain and six west European nations today began studying a possible tieup of their basic industries as the first step toward an ultimate political merger.

Allied envoys met 90 minutes at the foreign office. The talks were initiated by an assembly of lawmakers representing the countries of the Western European Union (WEU)—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, West Germany and Italy.

They had proposed that Britain join the European atomic energy community (Euratom), whose six members are the countries taking part in the meeting with the British.

May Join Community

The British agreed to consider the idea—and went further. They offered also to study possible entry into the European coal and steel community (ECSC), made up of the same six nations.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's government stipulated that Britain's entry could come only as part of a wider package deal—one that would also settle a trading policy dispute between the six and a rival British-led grouping.

The six have banded themselves together in a common market—which swaps trading privileges and tariff cuts—as well as in Euratom and the coal and steel community.

Britain leads the 7-nation European free trade association (EFTA).

A foreign office spokesman said after the opening meeting: "The session was concerned solely with the preliminary procedural aspects of the problem as posed for both sides."

2 Satellites Sent Into Orbit by Single Rocket

This Drawing shows the Transit 2A satellite, bottom, and the naval research laboratory's solar radiation measurement satellite, top, shortly after separation. The NRL satellite was launched into orbit atop the Transit 2A.

Forerunners of Network Which Will Give Ships, Planes Accurate 'Fixes'

BY HOWARD BENEDICT

Cape Canaveral, Fla. —(AP)— The United States, scoring a spectacular space "first," rammed two satellites into orbit with a single rocket today.

The doubleheader rocket that turned the trick was a 2-stage Thor-Able-Star, an air force vehicle making only its second flight. It rose smoothly from its searchlight-illuminated pad at 12:55 a. m. and streaked like a fiery comet toward the southeast.

The second stage fired for about four minutes, shut off and coasted for 20 minutes, then re-ignited for 13 seconds to kick the satellites into orbit.

The two new moonlets flashing across the skies are Transit II-A, a second experimental navigation aid satellite, and a basket-ball-sized aluminum sphere crammed with instruments to measure solar radiation.

The latter is called a "Piggyback" satellite because it hitchhiked a ride aboard the larger Transit payload.

Transit II-A is a 36-inch ball weighing 223 pounds. The tinier 42-pound package, looking much like a sea diver's helmet, was clamped to it until a spring device separated the pair once they were in orbit.

Send Out Strong Signals

America tried once before with a Vanguard rocket, to fire a pair of satellites into orbit simultaneously, but failed. As far as is known, Russia has not attempted such a feat.

Confirmation of orbit came 14 hours after launching when the satellite duo—the smaller leading the way—passed over a Seattle station on their first globe-girdling passes.

Navy officials in Washington reported the satellites were spinning approximately in their intended orbits and were transmitting strong signals. They said it would be some time before the exact apogee and perigee are determined.

Both were aimed at near-circular orbits 500 miles high and at courses which would take them over all parts of the world between the Arctic and Antarctic circles. This covers most of Russia.

Transit II-A is an advanced version of Transit I-B, which

Senate Set to Approve Treaty

Defers Action Until Today After 6-Hour Debate

Washington —(AP)— Swift and overwhelming senate approval of the new 10-year security pact between the United States and Japan seemed assured today.

A vote on the treaty was deferred unexpectedly last night after about 6½ hours of debate. Leaders said it was simply a case of senators being tired and wanting to go home.

Agreement was reached to vote after an additional half hour of debate at today's session following the customary opening routine transactions.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the senate Republican leader, said he thought no more than eight to ten votes would be cast against the treaty.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D Ark.), chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, said that there might be ten to twelve opposition votes.

A two-thirds majority vote is required to ratify a treaty. After senate ratification, only President Eisenhower's signature and an exchange of ratification documents with Japan are needed to make the treaty effective.

Plans called for flying the U. S. documents to Hawaii, where Eisenhower is now resting en route home from his Far Eastern tour.

Gains Seen in War on Cancer

Washington —(AP)— A leading cancer fighter sees "breath-taking implications" in recent findings supporting a theory that at least some forms of human cancer may be caused by viruses.

Dr. John R. Heller, director of the government's National Cancer Institute, put that evaluation on work recently reported by scientists of the National Institutes of Health, the Sloan-Kettering institute, and others in California and Germany.

In an article in "public health reports" issued yesterday, Dr. Heller pointed out that the work concerns new evidence concerning two acids found in the nuclei of all living cells. These nucleic acids are called, respectively, DNA and RNA.

Ike to Hit Back at Critics of His Tour

President to Address Nation After Return to Washington

Honolulu —(AP)— President Eisenhower was reported today to be planning to hit back at red China claims that his Far Eastern tour was an ignominious failure.

The president's rebuttal and a contention that much good was accomplished despite cancellation of his visit to Japan will come, it was understood, when he reports to the American people next week.

Eisenhower will make a nationwide television-radio address on the tour within a few days after returning to Washington. Present indications are he will arrive there Saturday or Sunday.

Argentina Says Israel's Attitude Makes Direct Negotiations Useless

BY MAX HARRELSON

United Nations, N. Y. —(AP)— Argentina told the U. N. today that Israel's attitude on the Adolf Eichmann case had caused the collapse of proposed direct negotiations between the heads of the two governments.

Negotiations, Argentina said, would be useless under present circumstances. Argentine Delegate Mario Amadeo called on the 11-nation security council to find that Israel had violated Argentina's sovereignty when it transferred the former Nazi official last month from Buenos Aires to Israel.

He also urged the council to call on Israel for reparations.

The Argentine demands were in a resolution which Amadeo submitted at the conclusion of a blistering indictment of Israel.

Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir in a reply to Amadeo was expected to argue that the gravity of the crimes charged to Eichmann justified extraordinary measures taken for his apprehension.

An Israeli spokesman in Brussels announced last night that Ben-Gurion and Frondizi would meet there Friday to discuss the Eichmann case, and Israeli Delegate Michael S. Comay in a letter to the council last night asked that it defer or refuse consideration of the Argentine complaint.

Comay said the dispute "can and should be settled by direct negotiation."

Committee Backs Minimum Pay Bill

Washington —(AP)— The senate labor committee today approved 12-2 a bill to increase the minimum wage to $1.25 by 1963 and bring about five million more workers under the wage-hour law.

The bill, somewhat broader than a similar measure already approved by the house labor committee, would bring retail and service enterprises under the law for the first time.

More than 80 per cent of the additional five million workers would be in this field. Not even the largest department store now is covered.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), chief sponsor of the bill, said he hoped it could be brought before the senate early next week. He said it represents a major and long-needed improvement in the federal wage and hour law, and predicted senate passage.

Under the bill the dollar an hour minimum wage for the 23,700,000 workers now covered would be raised to $1.15 next Jan. 1; to $1.20 Jan. 1, 1962, and to $1.25 Jan. 1, 1963.

'Hiss Act' Hit As Pentagon Asks Changes

Washington —(AP)— The Pentagon has told congress that thousands of servicemen have lost or face the loss of their retirement pay because of the "Hiss act." The Pentagon called this a "gross injustice."

The law, adopted in 1954, bars workers from receiving federal benefits after conviction on a wide variety of charges. The act was designed to prevent former state department official Alger Hiss from receiving benefits after he had been convicted of perjury. The law, however, embraces all federal workers and dozens of unlawful acts.

Defense Department General Counsel J. Vincent Burke recently informed the senate post office and civil service committee that the law as written and applied has already deprived servicemen of retirement pay because of relatively minor offenses.

Burke said this "harshness was never intended by the congress." He urged the act be rewritten to limit its application to security cases.

The house has already approved the changes suggested by the Pentagon.

Faces Pennsylvania Trial

Participant in Brink's Robbery Case Released

Boston —(AP)— Joseph J. Byrne told Judge Forte—who presided at the Brink's trial—it was his belief O'Keefe should not serve one more day in prison.

"I feel," the district attorney said, "he has paid his debt to the commonwealth in full."

O'Keefe then was escorted downstairs to municipal court to face a fugitive from justice charge in Pennsylvania.

Federal, state and local law enforcers freely admit the Brink's robbery Jan. 17, 1950 might not have been solved without O'Keefe's help.

Paper Reports Norway Breaking Up Spy Ring

Oslo —(AP)— A usually well-informed paper, the Norwegian Journal of Commerce and Shipping, today reported that police are breaking up an extensive spy net controlled by the Soviet embassy.

The crackdown reportedly stemmed from the surrender to police of a Polish refugee, Stanislaw Podzinski, who told of spying for communist Poland. He is to be brought before the Oslo district court tomorrow.

The Journal of Commerce and Shipping said all communist bloc embassies acted as contacts with Norwegians hired as spies and that east European ships—mostly trawlers—were extensively used.

Diabetes More Usual In U. S. Than England

Torquay, England —(AP)— Americans are twice as prone to diabetes as Britons because they eat more, worry more and take less exercise, a British doctor said today.

Prof. John Butterfield said half a million Britons, 1 per cent of the population, suffered from the disease, but he said a recent U. S. survey showed 2 to 3 per cent of Americans have diabetes.

"The American way of life does more to make them prone to diabetes," he said. Earlier, he told a panel discussion at the British Medical association science congress that half the Britons believed to have diabetes are not aware of it.

The honor, ordered by Emperor Hirohito, May 17, centennial of Japanese-American relations, is the highest honor Japan can confer on a foreigner, who is not a head of state. MacArthur was cited for "great contributions" to the postwar reconstruction of Japan.

Midnight Is Deadline for Golf Tourney

The annual Fox Cities Golf tournament for amateur golfers sponsored by the Post-Crescent will be held this weekend.

Handsome trophies will be awarded to the player with the individual best game, for the individual runnerup and for the team with the best score. In addition, valuable merchandise prizes will be awarded.

Interested and qualified golfers are invited to enter, the deadline for entries is midnight tonight. Golfers will find an entry blank in tonight's sports section.

Differences Show Between Hopefuls

Democratic Runners Claim Neither Can Carry States; GOP Vies Over Russians

Washington —AP— Further evidence emerged today of the sharp differences between candidates in both the Republican and Democratic races for the presidential nomination.

On the Republican side, the latest evidence was in public view. Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York offered it in major speeches Tuesday.

On the Democratic side, the latest evidence involved private party meetings. Supporters of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas were exchanging warnings that the other man couldn't win in November.

workers whether Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, could carry any of their states. The implication of the Johnson people was that Kennedy could not.

Another Democratic candidate, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, gave a television audience his estimate of the relative strength of the United States and the Soviet Union. "We have lost a great deal of strength," he said.

"We have lost it economically, relatively speaking. We have lost it psychologically. We have lost it, and admit, technologically in the space field. And I believe now that militarily the Russians are stronger than the United States."

BEWARE OF SUMMER INFLUENZA

Just now there is a wave of summer colds, some of which may develop into influenza or pneumonia. These simple precautions may help you to avoid a cold. Don't lie in a cold draft. Going to bed uncovered with a balmy summer breeze blowing over you is all right while it lasts, but as the night wears on the breeze may turn cold. If you have been perspiring and your clothes are damp, change them or put on something over you to prevent a chill. The body must be functioning perfectly to accommodate itself to the rapidly changing temperature and humidity of summer. Chiropractic adjustments will help the body to adapt itself to these extremely varying conditions. The after effects of the "flu" are sometimes more distressing and complicating than the disease itself, resulting in infection or inflammation in various organs of the body. If you have not felt as you should since the "flu" or are slow in recovery, a Chiropractic examination is recommended.

Nature Makes Life Miserable For Chileans

Bad Water, Rains, New Quakes Bring Terror to City

Santiago, Chile —AP— Infected drinking water, steady rains, new earth tremors and the threat of a wall of water from Lake Rinihue make life continuous misery for the battered population of the south Chilean city of Valdivia.

More than 40,000 persons in low-lying sectors of Valdivia and the surrounding valley are imperiled by the lake waters above, which have reached 42 feet beyond their normal level. Their natural outlet to the San Pedro river was blocked by landslides in last month's shattering earthquakes.

New panic gripped the city Tuesday as 16 minor quakes struck, threatening to topple earlier shocks. People rushed from homes still standing, screaming in horror. Many slept in the streets Tuesday night despite the heavy rains and severe cold.

Work Feverishly
An army of workers and soldiers sought feverishly to channel some of the pent-up lake water into the San Pedro, but the flood threat grew steadily worse as the rains continued without letup. Thousands have fled, but others stubbornly refused to leave what homes and lands the quakes had left them.

If the three million cubic yards of water trapped in the lake spill over into the valley, thousands of inhabitants could perish and millions of dollars in property and livestock would be lost.

Rain-swollen rivers already have flooded a dozen nearby communities, destroying crops and sending thousands of fleeing into the hills. But they were advised to leave their refuge by authorities who warned that the rains might send new landslides crashing down the slopes.

Princess Arrives For Kelly Funeral

Philadelphia —AP— Princess Grace and Prince Rainier of Monaco arrived here today to attend the funeral of the princess' father, John B. Kelly, Sr.

The Rev. Francis Tucker, spiritual adviser to the royal family of Monaco, and Miss Phyllis Blum, secretary to the princess, accompanied the couple.

Kelly, a nationally-known brick contractor, civic leader and former Olympic champion oarsman, died Monday of intestinal cancer.

Requiem mass will be celebrated 10 a. m. Friday at St. Bridget's Roman Catholic church.

Little Being Done to See About Living on Moon

House Committee Says Booster Work Goes Well; Lunar Trip May Be Difficult

Washington —AP— The job of building big enough boosters to get man to the moon is progressing well, the house space committee reported today, but little is being done to see how he can stay there.

The indications are it will be something less than a pleasure trip for the first spacemen to arrive. For instance, the temperature on the moon ranges each day from a low of 270 degrees below zero to 212 degrees above. There is practically no atmosphere and little gravity.

Human Hazards
These hazards of lunar living were cited by the committee in a report backing a plan by the army corps of engineers to build a research facility to simulate conditions on the moon. The facility would take $6 million and three years to build, the committee said. It urged prompt consideration of the proposal.

"There is almost no limit to the engineering problems that must be defined and solved on earth before man can work and live on the lunar surface," it said.

Booster Project
The committee said big booster projects to provide the thrust for moon trips have top priority ratings. But neither the defense department or the national aeronautics and space administration has a single program to simulate conditions a moon explorer will face, it added.

The engineers' planned facility would consist of a steel sphere from which all air could be removed and the extreme temperatures of the moon reproduced. It would be enough to house four men.

Larger facilities for testing equipment to be taken to the moon and for training personnel would be added later under the engineers' plan.

The national space program for the next 10 years, as outlined by NASA, calls for manned orbital flights around the moon by the end of the decade. No manned landings on the moon are contemplated before the early 1970s.

Robot Developed for Work Too Dangerous for Humans

Washington —AP— The Hughes Aircraft company has developed a robot for atomic age jobs too dangerous for men. It wants the government to assign radio frequencies to emancipate its robot from an electric control cable.

Hughes calls its wheeled machine Mobot Mark I. It looks more like a giant grasshopper than a man. Its steel arms are fully jointed and more flexible than human arms. Its hands are metal clamps which can pick up and handle tools. Its eyes are two television cameras that transmit what they see to the control console.

It can be made to speak with the voice of the controlling human. The company said it can do delicate tasks as well as exert tremendous strength.

Mobot Mark I is currently controlled through a trailing cable connection running to a man-operated keyboard. Now, Hughes said, the time has come to cut Mobot loose from the cable and let him go free and far afield under remote radio direction.

Hughes said its gadget could work in radioactive areas, in close-up fighting of oil well and forest fires, in dsarming warheads, in vacuums, as a deep-sea diver and eventually in exploring the moon.

Hughes told the federal communications commission the desired robot frequencies should be very high in the radio spectrum to avoid interference with other radio services.

Kremlin Won't Give Up Peaceful Coexistence, Nikita Tells Romania

Statement Believed Rebuke of Red China's Sharpshooting at Khrushchev's Policies

"No world war is needed-class, underestimate the for the triumph of socialist might of the socialist camp ideas throughout the world," and do not believe in the Khrushchev said in a speech great attractiveness of so at the third congress of the cialism which has clearly Romanian congress party in demonstrated its advantages Bucharest.

"These ideas will get the upper hand in the peaceful competition between the countries of socialism and capitalism," he declared. The Khrushchev said the Soviet text of the speech was published by Tass, the Soviet news agency.

No Mention
Khrushchev did not mention Red China, but his remarks were an obvious reply to the Soviet premier's policy of seeking better relations with the capitalist next president of the United nations. By contrast, Chinese States." But he said, "propaganda has harped on only the present leading men Lenin's statement that war in the United States are not between communism and capitalism is inevitable.

He recalled that the coexistence policy was linked di-way."

Lawrence Says Bloodshed on Quemoy Has Few Reactions

Liberal Policy Would Cost
Freedom of East

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington—Human beings were actually slaughtered. The lives of innocent persons were crushed out by artillery shells. They were not Europeans or Americans. They were Chinese. Does this make a difference?

There are no advertisements in the metropolitan papers signed with the names of prominent persons denouncing such inhumanity.

There are no petitions proclaimed by organizations such as cry out against nuclear tests—usually on the basis of humane considerations.

The families on the 14 tiny islands of the Quemoy group were terrorized by 174,000 shells—an all-time record in the Formosa strait hostilities. In three hours of the two days the communists fired more shells than they did in the first two weeks of the 1958 crisis.

Yet the communist government, which undertook the bombardment solely as a gesture of hostility toward President Eisenhower and the United States, seems to be getting away with its barbaric act. British newspapers, which heaped coals of criticism on President Eisenhower for going to the far east have not denounced the red China government for its wanton behavior. One reason perhaps is that the British have extended diplomatic recognition to red China. They did so largely to protect their commercial interests in Hong Kong.

Korea Weakened

In this country the pressure for recognition of the Peiping regime comes from the so-called "liberals" led by Adlai Stevenson, Democrat. Sen. Kennedy has indicated his belief that some understanding should be reached with the red China government. To do so means abandonment of freedom in the far east. It means the certain collapse of Korea and Formosa. The nationalist government on Formosa is a symbol of freedom, yet "liberal" influence today is exerted toward breaking down this bastion of western strength.

The Korean and Turkish governments have been weakened. And there is a chance now that the Japanese government will be torn by strife from within and will be a victim of communist infiltration.

When the red Chinese began to shell the Quemoy islands and brazenly announced that they were doing it as a gesture of "contempt and scorn" for President Eisenhower—it might have been supposed that the free world would react to such a maneuver with expressions of horror and disgust. President Eisenhower referred to the shelling when he spoke in Formosa. He regarded the action as cruel and barbaric, and said that it showed the typical communist "disregard of human lives," and added: "I would think world opinion would characterize it as a deliberate and aggressive act."

Silence in Europe

But why has there not been official condemnation from the governments at Paris and London? When a few persons were killed in South Africa due to the panic that seized the police in trying to quell a so-called "non-violent" demonstration, governments in Europe and Asia immediately exercised their disapproval in no uncertain terms. Will any government in southeast Asia now denounce the red Chinese for what they have just done in Quemoy?

The western allies do not appear to be united on far eastern policy. The United States bore the brunt of the resistance to the communist invasion of Korea, even though the fighting was done in the name of the United Nations. It seems incredible that so many governments inside the U.N.

today are ready to reward the aggressor by ousting the Nationalist government on Formosa and giving the China seat in the U.N. to the red regime.

The usual argument is that "China is a fact." So was Nazi Germany, but the rest of the world recognized and carried on diplomatic relations with the Polish government in exile, the Czech government in exile, and the Hungarian government in exile—all Peiping barbarians should these governments be stationed in London—during World War II. The Korean war isn't ended yet. An armistice has been signed, but no peace treaty. The terms of the armistice are being repeatedly violated by the red Chinese.

When the appeasers start talking about recognizing red China and when prominent Democrats exhibit friendliness toward the communist regime in China, it is natural that the ing take a chance and inflict a bombardment on the civilian population of the Quemoy islands. Maybe they think that if the Eisenhower administration is replaced by a Democratic administration next January there will be a tendency to "let bygones be bygones." The communists must wonder if the west is really as dedicated to the principles of humanity as it professes to be.

When Charlie Sounds Off He Really Blows His Horn

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

POTPOURRI—A friend of ours has an idea which he says will eliminate the gunshot accidents where someone says, "I didn't know the gun was loaded." Our friend suggests: Pass a law requiring that ALL guns be loaded at ALL times. . . . Whatever happened to dogs named Fido? Cats named Mitz? Cows named Bossie? Horses named Dobbin? Parrots called Polly? And why don't farmers name pigs?

From the Public School bulletin, Springfield, Ill., comes this juxtapositional humor: "Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rippel are recovering from auto accident injuries. Mr. Rippel will teach high school industrial arts this fall in stead of driver training." An advertisement from the Virginian Daily Review: "Save regularly at our bank. You'll never regret it."

The village of Forsythe, Montana, has erected a sign at the city limits which reads: "Forsythe is a good place to live. Last lynching in 1911."

That year a young cowboy named Wildcat Hoffer, 21, worked for a nice young woman, Mrs. Merrit, who owned a ranch. One day Wildcat tried to swipe a kiss but was repulsed. In anger, he shot Mrs. Merrit with a .38, took some shots at her children and stole all the money in the house.

He was captured and put into jail, but in those days the killing of a woman was a very serious offense because women were scarce and men were gallant. Besides, Mrs. Merrit was well liked. Townspeople broke into the jail, dragged Wildcat out and hanged him from a cottonwood tree on Main street. The sign at the edge of town proclaims a strange thing—people are proud of the lynching.

475 Hidden Taxes

Building a home? Well, you'll pay hidden taxes 475 times. . . . Buy a suit of clothes and you pay 116 taxes that you've never heard about. . . . Pay $3.90 for gasoline and you shelled out $2.10 for taxes. . . Pay $168 for coal and $105 is taxes. . .

They had to go and pick a queen to publicize National Macaroni week, but when the pretty girl was asked how she managed to be chosen she said, "By using the old noodle."

Friend of mine, Isadore Moidel, Los Angeles, is an attorney and from time to time he lets me know how things are going. A businessman, one of his clients, was sued for damages four years ago by a high school principal. The first trial resulted in a hung jury. The following year a retrial found 11 jurors in favor of the principal and only one in favor of the businessman. The case was appealed and sent back for another trial. At last the businessman won the case.

But Moidel pointed out that his client could have settled the case out of court for only $50.

His client said, "It wasn't the money I was after—it was the principal."

The Los Angeles Air Pollution Control unit dealing with smog there has blamed cigarettes in part. The unit calculates that nearly 65 million cigarettes are smoked in the county daily and add almost 12 tons of contaminants to the air.

45 Gentle Names

In the upcoming elections there will undoubtedly be a certain amount of genteel mud-slinging. Mud-slinging used to be rough and brutal. Brick Pomeroy, one-time editor of the LaCrosse Democrat, said of Maj. Gen. Benjamin Butler back in the days when name calling was NAME CALLING:

"... A living evidence of rascality, corruption, double-dealing, trickery, fraud, swindling, cowardice, bank-robbing, spoon-stealing, woman-insulting, house-plundering, enemy-aiding, country-betraying, government-sucking, treasury-filching, soldier-killing, prison-filling, God-forgetting, hell-deserving, truth-ignoring, virtue-wronging, vice-caressing, man-deceiving, law-destroying, church-pilfering, bullion-bagging, cotton-stealing, diamond-finding, vessel-clearing, speech-making, enemy-helping, powder-wasting, officer-murdering, spite-loving, nation-disgracing, friend-forgetting, and all-deadliest thief, robber, braggart, plunderer, bag-eyed bullion-bagger, and most detested, corrupt, selfish, false-hearted pet of perdition in all the annals of crime and infamy, past, present or future."

Independent Colleges Receive $1,500 Check

Philip Morris, Inc., has donated $1,500 to the Wisconsin Foundation of Independent Colleges, Inc., a foundation of Lawrence college and 16 other independent colleges in the state.

The check was presented by Arthur Snapper, president of Milprint, Inc., Milwaukee, a Philip Morris subsidiary.

Supreme Court Blocks Merger Of Paper Firms

The New Jersey Supreme court has blocked a plan to join United Board and Carton corporation, and Interstate Container corporation. A United Board spokesman said representatives of the two companies would meet within a week to discuss whether to begin new efforts to join the two companies.

The controversy that brought the transaction into New Jersey courts revolved about whether the agreement to join the companies, which was reached 13 months ago, was legally a merger or an acquisition.

The companies claimed it was an acquisition of the privately-held Interstate by United Board. Under the law in New Jersey, where United Board is incorporated, an acquisition requires only majority approval of stockholders. However, two United Board stockholders filed suits maintaining the transaction was a merger. Under the state's laws, a merger requires two-thirds stockholder approval and dissenters have the right to sell their holdings back to the company at a price set by independent appraisers.

Professional, Amateur Artists to Exhibit Painting in Oshkosh

Professional and amateur artists from the Fox Cities area will exhibit paintings on the grounds of the Oshkosh Public museum from 1 to 8 p.m. July 10. The art fair will be held in the new Oshkosh parking ramp if it rains.

The deadline for entering the fair is July 1, said Bernard T. Peterson, 905 Evans street, Oshkosh, who has entry blanks. An artist may enter any number of paintings in any medium, framed or unframed. Each artist will prepare his own exhibit.

The Fox River Valley Artist association is sponsoring the fair and the Oshkosh Public museum auxiliary is sponsoring an ice cream social in connection with it.

Fox Cities Publications Win State Contest Awards

Six Wisconsin industrial and business publications and their division of American Can company, Menasha; "The Correspondent," of Aid Association for Lutherans, Appleton, and "A-C Views" of the Wisconsin Manufacturers' association in Milwaukee. Among the winning publica-

Kaukauna Will Continue With Village Sewage

Council Approves Tree Pruning to Prevent Elm Disease

Kaukauna — Council members were informed Tuesday night the village board of Combined Locks did not contemplate building their own sewage disposal plant and felt Kaukauna should continue to handle sewage from the village.

A letter from G. H. Van Hoof, village attorney, said village officials felt one plant serving both communities would prove more economical than two separate plants, less discharge into the river would be realized from one plant.

The letter also stated the village would accept an adjustment in the rate for treatment of sewage due to investments in plant equipment or increased operating costs.

The village board also agreed to adopt an ordinance requiring sump pumps to eliminate the introduction of storm water into sanitary sewers from the village.

Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon indicated a meeting of officials from Kaukauna and Combined Locks would be called to discuss the problem further after the city engineering firm had made a complete survey and report on the needs and improvements at the sewage treatment plant.

Tree Pruning
A letter was read from the county agricultural agent pointing out dead or dying limbs on elm trees in city parks and other areas. He advocated pruning and fertilizing of the trees in an effort to keep Dutch elm disease from spreading into the diseased wood already in trees. The board of public works was authorized to have city crews begin work carrying out the suggestions.

After a suggestion by Mayor Bayorgeon, aldermen voted to have the board of public works and engineer work with the postmaster to have mail chutes installed on both sides of the street in front of the post office, for the convenience and safety of motorists.

A request for rezoning of land from residential to business district as proposed by DSK Developers, Inc., was referred to the planning commission, as was a 5-year lease of playground area in the First ward at a cost of $60 per year.

A citizen appeared to object to sewer back-up during periods of wet weather and was advised the matter was under study, with assistance from the state health board, and a solution to the problem, when forthcoming, would be undertaken immediately.

Move Play Equipment
Playground equipment recently installed in Fassbender park will be moved to the E. Eighteenth street play areas as it has proven hazardous for children playing in the area near the highways. The low bid of Andrews Oil company for road oil was accepted. Four bids were received.

Thilmany Pulp and Paper company agreed to accept one-half of assessment costs for resurfacing of Stribley road in front of their upper plant offices. Aldermen authorized the engineer to pre-

Thilco 25-Year Club Men to Clash in Annual Softball Tilt

Kaukauna — The annual softball clash between Smith's Colts and Brenzel's Old Timers will be held at 4 p.m. Saturday at the Thilco diamond with the Colts eager to regain the victory trail after last year's difficulty.

The Colts were coasting along with a 6-2 advantage until the Old Timers rallied to score four runs in the last inning to tie the count at 6-all. Games are limited to five innings by mutual agreement.

In the 12-year history of the contest, the Colts have won six, the Old Timers three and three have ended in ties.

Quarter Century
The game precedes the annual summer dinner meeting of the Thilco Quarter Century club, scheduled for 6:15 p.m. at Holy Cross school dining room.

Cavorting for the Old Timers, led by Russell Brenzel, will be Harold Hurst, Archie Vanervenoven, Ben Pahl, Martin Feldmann, Jerome Dreger, John Verbeten, Fred Ludke, Joseph Vils, Melbourne Frank, Herb Copes, Norbert Gerend, Vic Gerhartz, Tony Van Drasek, William Nushardt, Woodrow Toms, Hilton Schuh, Amsey Mamel and Jim Mankosky.

The Colts, led by L. C. Smith, will counter with Harold Stegeman, Robert Minkebig, Ray Diedrich, Norman

Little Chute Board Passes Improvements

Lay Groundwork For Rules on Salesmen, Beer
Little Chute — Three motions for improvements to village property and equipment were approved Tuesday night by the Little Chute village board.

Meeting at the village hall, with discussion barely audible above the sound of a rock and roll band playing at a dance in the hall downstairs, board members also laid the foundations for future ordinances governing short-term beer permits and magazine salesmen.

The board passed motions to:

Repair the diving platform in the park and purchase a new line of floats to separate the deep and shallow water.

Approve Taxi License
Repair the roof of the village hall and other village buildings at an estimated cost of $200.

Install an amber signal light on the new city truck and make necessary repairs and install existing equipment on the new police car and city truck.

On a motion made by Paul A. Hietpas, chairman of the police, ordinance and licensing committee, the board approved issuing a license to Robert Frank, 113 N. Wilson street, Little Chute, for the operation of a cab service in Little Chute.

Limit Salesmen
Hietpas also brought up the question of whether beer permits for organization-sponsored picnics and carnivals should be raised from the present $1 to $10.

Attorney Urban P. Van Susteren brought up and suggested for study an ordinance that would prohibit or limit the activities of magazine subscription salesmen in Little Chute.

The board also went on record approving the layout of the Homeland Heights plat adjacent to Little Chute. It had been approved by the state regional planner.

Objects Districting
Applications for bartenders, cigarette, and dairy product handling licenses were approved, along with two sewer and water permits.

Plans Underway For Intra-City Swimming Meet

Kaukauna — Plans are underway for an intra-city swimming meet to be held at 3 p.m. June 29 at the Memorial pool, open to all area swimmers of any age.

A wading event will be scheduled for juvenile non-swimmers under 10 years of age to permit all age groups to participate. Ribbons will be awarded first place winners while certificates will be awarded second and third place winners.

Complete details are available from park and playground recreation leaders. More information will be released after further planning by Michael McGoe, pool director.

31st New Home Permit Issued
Kaukauna — The thirty-first new home permit of the year was issued Tuesday by Lothar Kemp, building inspector, to Ervin DeBruin, 1405 Glenview avenue, Kaukauna.

DeBruin will construct a 1-story home with attached garage at 1505 Glenview avenue, estimated cost of the project set at $14,000.

William Steffen, 1401 Crooks avenue, was issued a permit to replace a front porch at an estimated cost of $200. Joseph DeWitt, 109 W. Fourteenth street, was issued a permit to add a dormer to his home at a cost of $1,500 and Russell Mereness, 318 W. Seventh street, was issued a permit to dig out an existing basement at a cost of $150.

Guests of Ball Player
Hortonville — G. A. Garriott and a former Indiana Central college classmate had a reunion Saturday at a Milwaukee Braves game. Garriott's wife, family and Mrs. Arthur Schmidt were guests of St. Louis Cardinal George Crowe. Crowe gave autographed baseballs to the Garriott boys.

Kostka, village president, said the board should consider establishing a commission to study school districting.

He also suggested that someone should be sent to Madison to let the legislature know "we don't want anything to do with school districting." No action was taken.

The board approved payment of bills, including the bridge bond and interest.

Choral Group to Be Organized by Rec Department

Kimberly — A meeting of youngsters interested in joining a recreation sponsored choral group during the summer will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday in the high school auditorium.

Open to grade school youngsters, individual tryouts will be held in an effort to have three or four students represented from each class. Serving as director will be Miss Barbara Bunnow.

The choral group is a new playground innovation and practice sessions will be scheduled after registration.

It is likely the group will perform during some phase of the Golden Jubilee celebration.

Pravda Raps Critics Of Foreign Policy
Moscow — Pravda had a sharp answer Tuesday for any communist disagreeing with Soviet foreign policy.

Discussing the Romanian party congress, the Soviet communist party organ reiterated that war is not inevitable, disarmament is not only necessary but possible and that peaceful coexistence is vital to the socialist camp.

Pavel Satyukov, editor of Pravda, is with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Bucharest for the party meeting. Khrushchev has been carrying on a running battle with "leftist" critics of his theory of peaceful coexistence.

Thinly camouflaging the target of its remarks, Pravda praised Romanians as a strong link in the communist camp who fight those who "attempt to distort Marx Lenin principles."

Traffic Officer Conflicts

Evidence continues to accumulate that the state and county traffic patrols don't get along very amicably in some districts, and that in a distressing number of instances they have been in open conflict. It also is becoming more evident that the authority that has the power to do something about it, the state legislature, is uncertain about what it ought to do. Lacking any firm views, it has tended to pretend that the problem doesn't exist, or at best, to indulge in futile lectures to the contending forces about the virtues of togetherness and cooperation. The session of the legislature's highway interim study committee the other day was typical. It heard resentful accounts of conflicts from both sides, the county officers, and the commanders of the relatively new state patrol. But the legislative leaders could come up with nothing more solid than the self-righteous advice that the rivals should attempt to iron out their difficulties and stop bothering the lawmakers with them. We have no magic formula for resolving this awkward situation. But it would seem that a common sense conclusion would be that the patrols must be unified. Either we should have a county system, with state finanacial participation, or we should have an exclusive state system. For five years we have had "studies" and "advisory committees," with no results that the naked eye of the motorist can observe over the countryside. The traveler continues to wonder vaguely, and sometimes with annoyance, why he will encounter two kinds of patrol insignia on the same stretch of road, and sometimes at the same intersection. The motorist reading his newspapers finds at intervals dispatches about two patrol cars racing to investigate the same accident and quarrelling about it afterward in the public forums such as that provided by the interim committee. The legislature of 1955 had before it an expert report, for which it paid handsomely in state tax funds, urging an integrated traffic enforcement service for the 100,000 miles or more of rural highways. It flinched from the decision, however, and took the easy way out by establishing a longer state patrol alongside the existing county patrols. While we can sympathize with the political complexities and hazards of the choice, we must also confess regret that the decision was evaded. If there is any distinction between then and now it is that the relations of the two groups of officers have degenerated.

Success Story in the Pacific

One of the most heartening things about the Philippine Islands, and their long years of sometimes unpleasant relations with the United States, may have been demonstrated by President Eisenhower's tremendous reception there last week. But of far greater importance, both for the Filipino people and our own foreign affairs policies, are the signs that the Filipinos can govern themselves and can recover from dishonest regimes with aplomb and intelligence. They deserve our pledge of military protection. When full independence came to the Philippines soon after the end of World war II, there developed disquieting evidence of graft, Communist infiltration, economic chaos and trouble ahead. Many Westerners shrugged their shoulders and pointed to the traditions of corruption which seem ineradicable in many Asiatic countries. But Ramon Magsaysay arose from virtual obscurity and, with something close to political genius as well as a high sense of integrity, he ran out the Reds, exposed corruption and restored the faith of his people in democratic governmental processes. But Magsaysay's death in a plane crash in 1957 again opened the door to leaders of less vision. The government of Carlos Garcia seemed to regress toward the greased palm and the bland acceptance of the age-old Asian type graft. Garcia's party lost heavily in local elections last fall. And he turned to a former schoolteacher who had helped Magsaysay with budget problems. Dominador Aytona was appointed secretary of finance and set about cleaning up the department. Sixty employees were fired, ninety more have charges of corruption pending against them, some four hundred are being investigated. By halting at least in part the false records and payments to grafters, Aytona has increased revenues from taxes and customs 20 per cent. His ability is not only to sniff out the exploiters. He has reformed the "controlled decontrol" of the peso in the hopes of having a free currency market within four years. His customs measures are aimed at the importation of really essential goods instead of the luxuries. Aytona should go far in a country which has proved its admiration and backing of men of honesty and ability. In a sense his success is an indirect compliment to the United States which also had the faith in a people to run their own government honestly. Other colonial powers in the Pacific have bragged that they understood the weaknesses of the natives and they have chuckled about the naivete of the Americans. But the Philippines stand out as a nation which can maintain an honest regime and which now is beginning to insist upon one.

The Deer Trouble

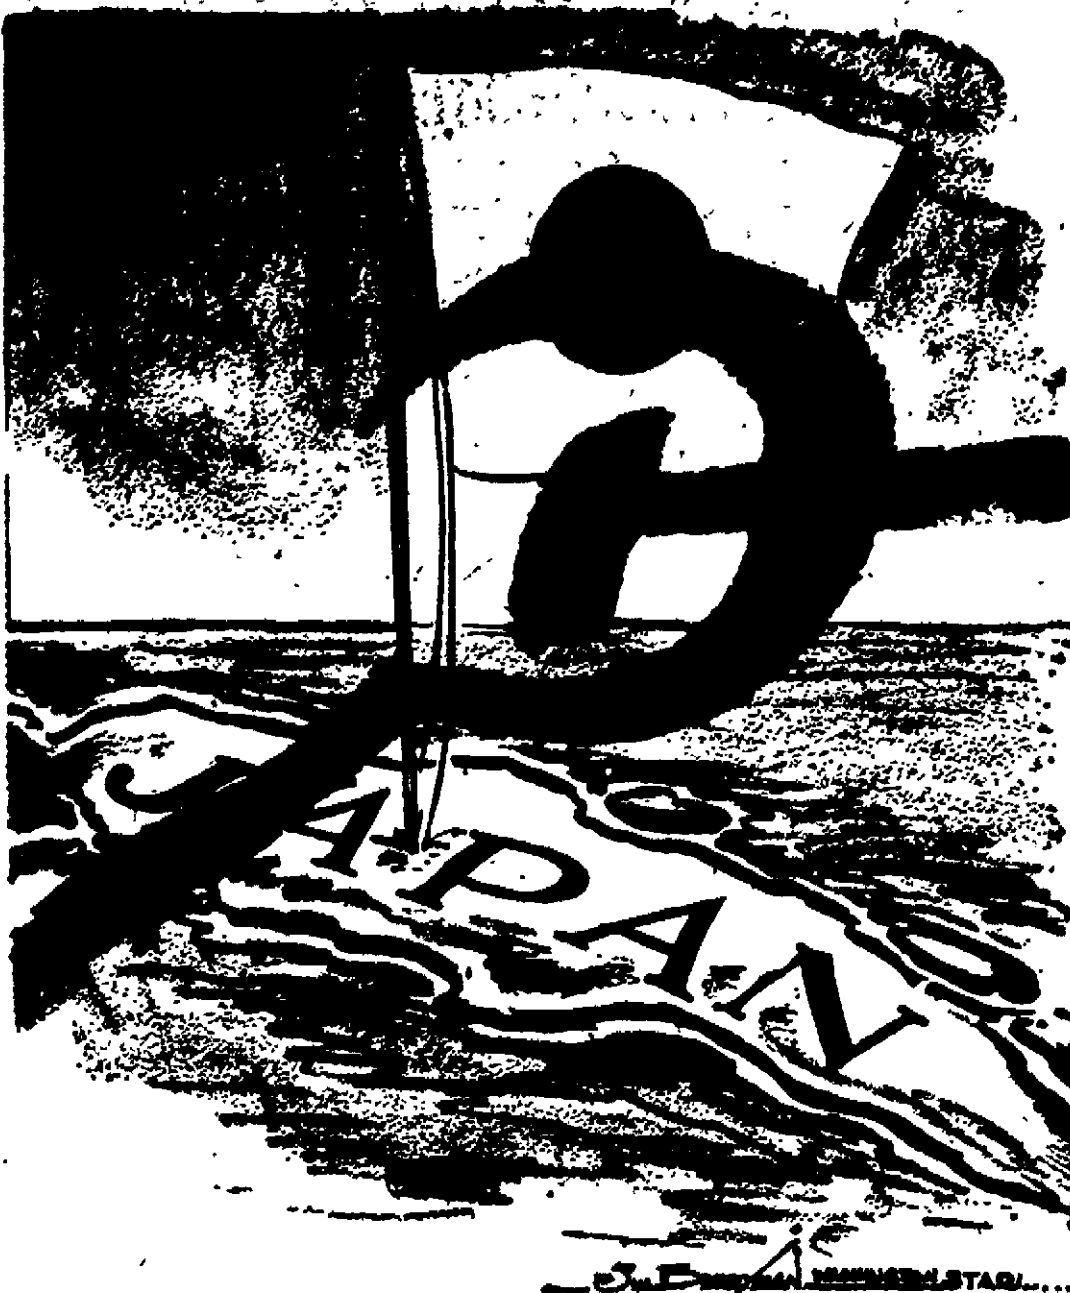

The citizen with an earnest interest in Wisconsin outdoors affairs and wildlife may well wonder, contemplating the revolt of the Wisconsin Conservation Congress against the state policy of liberal deer harvesting, whether the state conservation department didn't invite some of its embarrassing difficulties. The system of extra shooting through the device of the so-called "party permit" was originally contrived as a means of encouraging a heavier harvest in areas of surplus animals. By controlling the zones in which the party permits were valid, according to the rationale when the legislature was persuaded to authorize this departure from the traditional licensing arrangements, the population of animals could be trimmed with more precision. But for the last couple of years the permit area has been steadily broadened, so that today it is scarcely distinguishable from the general regions where the regular licenses are validated. If there is a suspicion abroad that the management tool has been abused as a revenue scheme, or as an indirect means of achieving wholesale deer killing that the commission doesn't dare to achieve directly, it is understandable. The perennial dispute about the proper means of handling the Wisconsin deer resource, meanwhile, provides a reminder that the celebrated advisory machinery of the conservation commission is not really adequate. It lacks a representative character. The Conservation Congress is an admirable device, when it is involved in matters relating only and strictly to wildlife. It is perhaps as accurate a voice of the average outdoorsman as can be found. But it doesn't pretend to represent anybody else, while the deer issue cuts across special interest alignments. To the extent that the deer are deteriorating the immense acreages of state, federal and county forests in the northland, the taxpayers' money that has been expended for their development is being wasted. To the extent that the nibbling of the whitetails is destroying or retarding growth and reproduction on private plantations, the economic welfare of the state is involved in this question that has too often been dismissed as a mere quarrel of the game hunter. The enigma now faced by the commission with the rebellion of the Congress manifestly calls for a capacity for compromise. Let the commission remember that on deer, if not on bullheads or wood duck, there are economic as well as sporting values involved.

Why Not Nominate Eleanor?

It used to be a primary strategy of would-be candidates for nomination to be coy about seeking the backing of party members. Such a politician announced he was not running, then made a lot of speeches about every possible national or international issue, shook a lot of hands, met a lot of grass-root leaders and slapped a lot of backs. But Adlai Stevenson, trying these maneuvers after twice openly campaigning, is finding them very difficult. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt just won't let him play hard to get. Mrs. Roosevelt has come out several times in favor of Mr. Stevenson's candidacy. She views with alarm, and out loud, the conservatism of Sen. Kennedy, the lack of civil rights emphasis from near-southerner Sen. Symington, and everything about anybody whom ex-President Truman approves.

Upset about the swing of some eggheads from Stevenson to Kennedy, she contacted Adlai. Then she announced, after releasing his statement to the press, that he was a candidate. Mr. Stevenson, approached on his farm in Illinois, gave out the same statement that Mrs. Roosevelt had released only he concluded from it that he was not a candidate. Mrs. Roosevelt reiterated that he was. The trouble is that Mrs. Roosevelt, well intentioned as always, just doesn't seem to understand the devious ways of men in the political limelight despite her years of experience with them. She is insisting that the politicians be straightforward and she is taking all the fun out of running for office. And, since men still control the nominations, and don't understand women, she may not only defeat Adlai's nomination, she might get it herself!

Uninsured Drivers Not Confined To 16- to 21-Year-Old Group

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Mrs. Zolkowski's literary outburst (June 17) did little to stir my emotions as regarding her chosen topic — the usual "shameful-plight-of-our-barbaric-teenagers" cliché. First, let it be understood that I do not disagree that uninsured drivers are indeed an unnecessary hazard in our society. But does Mrs. Zolkowski have to generalize this breed of drivers into the 16- to 21-year-old group alone? Mrs. Zolkowski obviously tried to muster sympathy from the readers by stating her father's "meager" earnings were barely enough for him to buy a new car, thus making the $100 — or part of it — that he had to dish out seem like a small fortune. Although this makes a fairly good tear-jerker, let me remind Mrs. Zolkowski of another incident: A teenager that I happen to know managed to get himself a part-time job, and with his earnings, bought himself a nice, shiny used car. (Need I tell you what owning a car means to a boy?) and as in Mrs. Zolkowski's father's case, he also was struck by an uninsured driver, and consequently, the entire car was totally wrecked. The uninsured driver was not a young "punk" I assure you. Quite the contrary, he was a middle-aged government employee. Needless to say, the latter escaped any obligation to pay for the damage. Therefore, Mrs. Zolkowski, before you continue with the sickeningly familiar bombardment of our youth, take a god look at our "wise elders" — the 21 and over group. Within this group we have a choice array of drunken drivers, speedsters, and of course, the uninsured. Secondly, Mrs. Zolkowski, I suggest that you explain, if you can, your reason for knocking the police force. Certainly, you must realize that even they have their limitations. Are we adults so sickened by our own faults, or so ashamed of our feeble attempts to be "law-abiding" citizens, so twisted by our own gutter-dwelling minds that we have to attack those who cannot defend themselves — the teenagers. Why don't we adults grow up, instead of waiting for our youth to do the same? Mrs. Thomas Otto Stead Drive, Menasha

$425 Donation Will be Made

Cortez, Colo. — A minister received a personal inquiry from an Internal Revenue agent regarding a $425 deduction claimed by a taxpayer for a church charity. The agent asked: "Did he make this donation?" The minister replied: "He will. He will."

Looking Backward

Sketches on Candidates' Wives

100 YEARS AGO Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of June 23, 1860. The letter writers describe Mrs. Lincoln as a lady about 35 years old and a zealous Presbyterian. Mr. Lincoln attends the same church, but is not a member. He, however, is a moral man and a strict teetotaler. A Temperance President with a Presbyterian lady to preside at the White House may effect some changes in Washington manners. Mrs. Bell is a lady of decided character and energy and is not bitterly proslavery in principle. At the murder of the waiter at a hotel in Washington, by Herbert of California, she took the occasion to express strong abhorrence of the manners of Southern ruffians who chanced to obtain seats in the national legislature. Mrs. Douglas has been for many years — ever since her marriage, in fact — one of the queens of Washington society. Whatever people think of the Little Giant, it is settled by unanimous vote that Mrs. Douglas is charming. If she were a candidate for the nomination, no convention would ignore her claims. If she were to run for the presidency, she would unite all suffrages, unless some fanatics went against her on religious grounds, for Mrs. Douglas is an earnest, practical Roman Catholic. 25 YEARS AGO Wednesday, June 19, 1935 What was believed to have been a record rainfall drenched Appleton and vicinity during the last three days when total precipitation for the period reached 4.62 inches, according to a report from the Wisconsin Michigan Power company. Definite moves were afoot in the senate to boost federal revenue by tacking higher income and other taxes to the $501,000,000 "nuisance" tax bill that was before the senate finance committee. Emmery A. Greunke, postmaster, A. C. Hahn, postoffice inspector, and Congressman George J. Schneider, all of Appleton, attended the opening of the thirty-third annual convention of Wisconsin postmasters which opened in Green Bay that day. A summer recreation program, to be promoted as an FERA project in cooperation with the Emergency Educational program, was discussed at a conference of relief officials with Ralph Workinger, assistant to Bruce Uthus, state director of the work program, at the public relief department.

the future of the peacetime draft act set to expire at midnight Saturday. There appeared to be little argument about continuation of the selective service registering of all young men from 18 through 25 years for possible emergency military service. George E. Johnson, Appleton, was selected by Mayor Robert L. Roemer to succeed Charles S. Boyd on the Appleton Park board, the mayor announced that morning. Miss Lida Schneider was appointed Appleton representative on the state business and Professional Women's club nomination board for 1950. Mrs. Charles Taff was elected captain of the recently-organized Circle 5 of the First Methodist church, Neenah. Mrs. Edmund C. Bloch was elected secretary and treasurer.

Potomac Fever — by Fletcher Knebel

College entrance requirements are getting tough all over. In Tokyo a boy needs two years of math, three of snake-dancing and must be in the upper 10th of his high school riot class. Chairman Percy invites suggestions for the Republican platform. Best suggestion thus far: Keep the list of accomplishments to one page—and blame half of that on the Democrats. Jack Kennedy wears the top hat of a Harvard overseer. Republicans will circulate the picture in Iowa with the caption: "Candidate Ponders Farm Problem." Pennsylvania's Gov. Lawrence says Rockefeller should make the Democratic key-note speech. Why? Didn't it sound all right the first time? A Fine Arts commission member, objecting to an art design, says "rudity is getting respectable again." To verify this statement, check any super-market in summer time. One thing about the Japanese educational system. They sure don't overload the students with homework. Ike vows to defend Formosa? It may be a small world, but it sure gets awful heavy when a man has been carrying it on his shoulders for eight years.

Under the Capital Dome

The Political System Still Belongs to Men

BY JOHN WYNGAARD Madison — The new battle of the ballots now being prepared by the politicians of Wisconsin and the rest of the country provides a reminder of a curious and perhaps regrettable fact: Four decades after the adoption of the women's suffrage amendment, there still is only occasional and marginal participation by women in the political life of the country. Women vote. They have nominal responsibilities in political party organizations. Indeed, in some of the working units of political organizations the women outnumber the men. Here and there a woman will be elected sheriff (to succeed her husband) or dare to run for the legislature, or for congressman (although not in Wisconsin.) The one woman in the United States senate at Washington is famed over the country, in all likelihood, not so much for what she has done, or stands for, or believes, as for the fact that she is a woman in a man's political system.

Wyngaard

territories — where there is very little chance for the Democrats to win such offices. The Republicans are trying with similar eagerness to cajole presentable persons for places on the county and legislative tickets in districts where the Democrats are heavily favored. But nobody talks about women in such contests. When they do, there is a silence rivaling that of the convent library. The reasons only can be speculated about. In this matter as in many others in politics — in defiance of this age of the research specialist — there is very little fact on the record. One reason obviously is the indisposition of women, mothers, householders and others, to drop their primary responsibilities for the doubtful rewards of office-seeking. But another, the bystander suspects, is that American public opinion has not yet fully accepted the equality of the sexes suggested in the suffrage laws, whatever the male politicians may say from the platform when the ladies are listening. PERHAPS SOMETIME As if in anticipation of these skeptical observations, Mrs. Ellen Proxmire, wife of the Wisconsin junior U. S. Senator, recently wrote about the increasing role of women in politics in the house organ of the Wisconsin Democratic party. She related the crucial part played in the careers of some national politicians, including many of her husband's colleagues, by wives. It is a good point. This reporter has watched some superb female politicians in his time. Mrs. Muriel Humphrey and Mrs. Martha Taft, to name a pair in national presidential politics. Mrs. Oscar Rennebohm and Mrs. Henry Maier as a few in state politics. For that matter, Mrs. Proxmire is perhaps as apt an example as can be named in Wisconsin affairs, although she had a fruitful apprenticeship in organization politics before she became Mrs. Proxmire. But it is not quite the same, thing. Single women are counted out by this test, as well as those thousands of others who are the spouses of non-political husbands. Political equality of the sexes remains a goal, in practice.

House Fly May Become Extinct, Researchers Say

From The San Diego Union

It may not be too long before house flies are extinct as dinosaurs. That is the report from Beltsville, Md., where four federal researchers are edging closer to such a goal. This is their plan: To force the flies into something akin to face suicide. The scientists hope to accomplish this by tampering with the love life of a fly, cooking meals for flies that will destroy their ability to reproduce. A chemical sterilant is the prime ingredient. If the researchers succeed, they will have achieved the world's eternal gratitude. Flies have plagued man since the beginning of time. In fact, a "grievous swarm of flies" was set upon the Pharaoh to persuade him to let Moses out of Egypt. This project, we are sure, will bring no objections from either Republicans or Democrats.

Brochure Tells Advantages of Little Chute

Committee Prepares Pamphlet in Effort To Promote Industry

Little Chute — A brochure on the village of Little Chute has been prepared by a committee called the Industrial Development association, composed of members of the Businessmen's association, village board and Kiwanis club.

The brochure welcomes both new residents and industry to the community and points out advantages of living in the community. Included are an aerial view of Little Chute, a picture of Doyle park, boating on the Fox river, the Community bridge and pictures of village police and fire equipment.

Other Pictures
Also included are pictures of St. Elizabeth hospital, Kaukauna Community hospital, Appleton Memorial hospital, the village hall, Combined Locks Paper company, Thilmany Pulp and Paper company, Kimberly — Clark, the bank of Little Chute, Crystal Print plant, and Essential Products.

Other photos include Greyhound bus lines, Chicago and North Western railway, North Central airlines, village churches and schools and scenes of fishing and recreation facilities in the area. In line with this it gives detail on the pictures as well as information on colleges in the area, postal facilities, tax rates, utility rates, temperature information and weather statistics.

The brochure furnishes information on accessibility of surrounding industries and recreation facilities as well as some details on village government and facilities provided by the governing body. Sites for factory building are offered with information to be furnished by the committee. The slogan for the village is

Legal Problems Cause Trouble for Council

Question of Using Public Funds to Aid Service Organizations Proves Difficult parade caused considerable confusion at the council meeting Tuesday night when the city attorney advised the council of the illegality of the procedure. Emmet Rohan, attorney, in a letter to the council prior to approval of bills pointed out it was illegal for the city to give $300 for the VFW Memorial day celebration and $400 to the American Legion to help sponsor the junior baseball program.

Public funds cannot be used for private purposes, according to Rohan. He felt both the brochure is, "Where Community Spirit Prevails." Work on the pamphlet has been going on for over a year. Committee members include Paul Hermesen, Robert Hartjes, Peter Van Zeeland, Joseph Vander Velden, Robert St. Aubin, Edward Splerings, Jack Reynebeau, Jack Lambers, Robert Vanden Boogard and Joseph Hietpas.

First Special Event For Play Activity Planned at Kimberly

Kimberly — The first special event of the summer play season will be held at 6:30 tonight on the grounds behind the high school, according to Gil Frank, playground director. Prizes will be awarded in various categories such as the largest pet, smallest pet, most unusual and others. Play leaders will serve as judges.

of the parade planned in conjunction with the VFW picnic. Clarence Sullivan, VFW post commander, read a letter telling of the expenses to the organization, advantages to the community, hours of planning and work and interest shown in the annual parade. He agreed they had been advised by their own attorney about the city appropriating public funds to a private organization being against the law, but urged aldermen to overlook the law and appropriate the funds.

Ald. Bert Roberts asked the attorney whether the city could stage the parade through the recreation committee and whether an appropriation of funds to the committee would be legal. Rohan ruled this would be permitted if the city, at all times, kept control of the funds. Aldermen then voted to have the recreation committee work with the VFW in planning a civic parade to be held in conjunction with the VFW picnic. The committee will be responsible for paying some of the expenses and prizes being offered in conjunction with the parade. Money will be handled by the committee and the parade will be staged under the direction of a city committee. VFW members agreed to the plan.

Thilco to Add On Bag Mill

Contractors to Bid On 200 by 85-Foot Building This Month

Kaukauna — Requests for bids on the construction of an addition to the Bag Mill will be sent to contractors this week, according to Ed Uehlein, plant engineer for the Thilmany Pulp and Paper company.

Work on the 200 by 85-foot concrete and glass block structure is expected to start in early July and, when completed, will provide the Bag Mill with 17,000 more square feet of space. This will permit relocation of some machines and provide additional space for storing completed bags. The addition will include forced air heating and ventilation to serve the new area and supplement ventilation in the existing building. It will incorporate automatic air filters and area temperature controls to provide comfortable working conditions. At present conditions in the Bag Mill are quite crowded. The new building will be constructed on compacted fill, have no basement and will have a pre-cast concrete slab roof.

Village Board To Air Bids on Curb and Gutter

Kimberly — A special meeting of the village board has been called for 7 p. m. Monday to open bids on three curb and gutter projects to be completed this summer. Specifications for the work are available at the clerk's office or from McMahon Engineering, village engineers.

fined $10 by Anton Jansen, justice of the peace. Fined were Joseph Van Groll, 42, route 4, Appleton, and Mrs. Geraldine J. Williams, 820 E. Main street, Little Chute.

Work contemplated includes N. and S. John street, James street and part of Third street from Main street to Railroad street. Originally the village board contemplated no curb and gutter work this year, setting up these projects for 1961. Residents on these streets demanded action after heavy rains this spring made roads nearly impassable, thus the board agreed to borrow money to complete the project this year. An assessment rate of $2.50 per foot was set up by the board despite objections from persons involved who felt the $1.50 rate as formerly assessed by the village should be continued.

No Combination Found For Governing Congo

10 Days Left Before Vast Nation Gains Independence; Leader Holding Meetings

Leopoldville, Belgian Congo—With a few days remaining before independence the Congo still hasn't found a combination of leaders to govern it. The Belgians leave June 30 and prospects are still dim for a broad based national union coalition to guide the new nation's first steps. Nationalist leader Patrice Lumumba has spent days in rapid fire consultations with political groups without achieving the coalition he says he needs to ensure stability and peace after independence. Lumumba has been entrusted by Belgium with finding such a coalition.

Strongest Opponent

His strongest opponent, Joseph Kasavubu, leader of the Aka party, said recently after talks with Walter Ganshof van der Meersch, Belgian resident minister, that he saw little hope for the formation of a national union government. The Belgian minister also has talked to half a dozen of the most important political leaders without getting assurance that they would be willing to participate in a coalition.

Regional interests and disputes over centralism against federalism are among the issues separating the parties.

A bitter clash of ambitions also divides Lumumba and Kasavubu, the two most prominent nationalist leaders in the Congo.

The 2-chamber parliament envisioned for the young nation already has been elected and met for the first time Friday.

Elaborate celebrations are planned for June 30 when the explorer Henry M. Stanley organized the region on behalf of King Leopoldville II.

Rich in mineral deposits, tropical forests and wild life, this country of some 134 million population extends for 904,757 square miles in equatorial Africa. It is the largest single territory in Africa.

Some 1,000 guests from foreign countries, including President Eisenhower's personal representative, Robert Murphy, have been invited to the two days of celebration that will mark independence.

Disorderly Conduct

Ed Frye, age unknown, 924 1/2 W. Fifth street Tuesday in municipal court was fined $25 for disorderly conduct. Frye's wife said her husband came home drunk Saturday night and threatened her with a knife.

Says Government Should Encourage Private Business

Nixon Suggests Lower Tax Rates In High Personal Income Brackets

BY E. W. DABBY
Financial Editor, Chicago Sun-Times

Starting off an interview with Richard M. Nixon, I asked the Vice President to define for me his general economic philosophy. Would he call himself a conservative, a liberal or something like the popular Eisenhower tag, progressive conservative?

Nixon was impatient with such labels. "I think it is very difficult to categorize people in public life with terms like liberal and conservative because those terms have been distorted by usage and practice," he said.

You get at the question by being specific, Nixon added, and then offered his test of a politician's philosophy:

"How the individual feels about the role of government in the economy."

Nixon said he believes "Government action in the economy should be limited to those areas where it is necessary."

Third of Series

with a surprise in view of the emphasis placed by the Eisenhower administration on the need to balance the budget and reduce the national debt.

"It is essential," said Nixon, "that we re-evaluate our whole tax system from the standpoint of seeing how it can be modified so that we can increase not only the opportunities for, but also, the incentives for, investment in the private sector of the economy."

Looks at Tax Rates

"You begin," he said, "with depreciation. Virtually everyone of the advisers I have agrees that modification of the depreciation schedules can and will encourage more investment in the economy."

"I believe we've got to examine the rates, for example, the individual rates in the higher income brackets at those points where they have become counter-productive in effect," Nixon continued.

"I think with a different approach, with more realistic rates (and that means lower rates in the higher income brackets) funds would be funneled into productive, creative enterprise."

Hits Expense Accounts

Nixon paused a moment and then, waving a clenched right fist, went on:

"This is unpopular political-ly, but we ought to tackle it head on."

And he said, "I intend to."

This might make it possible to get at the roots of "this expense account economy," Nixon suggested.

The wide use of expense accounts creates a system, Nixon said, that is "inefficient. It encourages avoidance of taxes, and in some cases evasion, graft and corruptions."

"As far as the corporate rate is concerned, the 52 per cent rate, I'm not yet prepared to say what action, if any, should be taken," Nixon said. (Tomorrow: Tax Structure Should Be Overhauled) (Copyright, 1960)

Private Enterprise

"I have great confidence in individual and private enterprise. I believe that has been the mainspring of economic progress in this country."

"I think it will continue to be in the future."

"I think our policies should be directed toward encouraging and expanding opportunities for individuals and for private enterprise, recognizing that that is going to be the major source of economic growth."

"Beyond that I reject the philosophy of some of those who call themselves conservatives, those who, in effect, assert that government has no responsibilities and should undertake no actions or programs to supplement what individuals in private enterprise cannot or will not do for themselves."

"In other words, as I see it, our aims are to develop in this country the best life we can."

Private Responsibility

"This means the best systems of medical care, education, the best housing, the best jobs, and the highest standard of living that we possibly can."

"I believe that the way to achieve these goals is to begin by putting primary responsibility on private and individual enterprise, turning then to government enterprise at the local and state level to supplement where private enterprise can't or won't do the job that needs to be done."

"And then turning to the federal government to supplement what local or state governments are unable to do."

"Beyond that, however, the federal government has some very definite responsibilities to create the climate for an expansion of the private sector of the economy."

Rejects 'Hands Off'

"I completely reject what some call the liberal point of view and some call the conservative point of view that government should take a hands off attitude as far as the economy is concerned."

"If you are going to have a healthy private enterprise economy you've got to have government lay down the rules of the game."

"And you've got to have government, particularly in the fiscal area, adopting policies which will encourage and stimulate the maximum productive and creative effort by individuals."

Snake-Bitten Youth Expected to Recover

Palm Springs, Calif. — The snake-bitten son of millionaire sportsman Bob Howard and ex-actress Andrea Leeds... was reported out of danger today at a hospital in this desert resort.

Robert Howard, Jr., 19, a snake fancier, was bitten on the finger Saturday by a sidewinder, a type of rattlesnake. His condition was listed as critical for a time. Doctors had trouble treating him because he is allergic to antivenom.

Howard's grandfather, the late Charles Howard, owned a string of race horses including the great Sea Biscuit.

UN Trials Show Spying Effective

Israel to Refuse to Return Eichmann to Argentina

BY WILLIAM S. WHITE
Washington — For the second time in recent weeks the United Nations faces a contest between the realities of life and the out-moded diplomatic niceties of the 19th century. Again conditions and facts, clash with a theory that was all right long ago.

White

A few weeks ago the security council was solemnly trying, and acquitting, the United States for the vast "crime" of sending a spy plane over the Soviet Union. The Soviet Union's charge—violation of its sovereignty—was gravely put at rest though no other nation had ever spied, in a world where espionage is as real and universal as is the desire of nations to keep alive.

Now, Israel goes before the U. N. to answer Argentina's complaint that her sovereignty has been violated by the capture in Argentina by Israeli "volunteers" capture of the Nazi, Adolf Eichmann.

Track Him 14 Years

The man was charged with the systematic murder of 6,000,000 Jews under Hitler. For 14 years the Israelis had been on his track until they found him and took him to Israel to be tried.

The Argentines had not accused or punished him, though he had come there illegally and had remained. For the security council now to order his return to Argentina would be unthinkable, for two reasons.

First, Eichmann would continue to cheat the justice long overdue. The U.N. has no courtroom, prison, nor power to punish.

Second, the Israelis would firmly tell the U.N. that Eichmann would face an Israeli court of justice all the same.

No Freedom

No Israeli government would allow this man out of its hands. All governments have duties beyond pleasing the U.N., which is unable to prevent crime.

The real point of the last U.N. trial was that it highlighted American counter-pionage success penetrating for four years the skies over the Iron Curtain.

The real point of the coming U.N. Israel trial is its dramatization of the spectacular efficiency of Israel's security and counter-espionage. This correspondent, in a visit a few months ago, saw a little of that system at work along Israel's troubled frontiers.

Israel's Man Nameless
What was not seen then and never will be—was the topmost man in Israel's intelligence operations, who is wisely kept nameless by the Israeli government. (The United States makes its top man, Allen Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency known.)

Our wisest friends abroad were far from offended by the U-2 episode. On the contrary, they were heartened to learn how successful American intelligence could be. All pro-Westerners can be heartened that the Israelis, as staunch Western allies, have shown that they, too, know how to do it in Tel Aviv, Jerusalem and everywhere.

Nationalist Wins Major Political Test in Belgian Congo

Leopoldville, Belgian-Congo —Patrice Lumumba, fiery goateed nationalist leader, won his first major political test today in the new chamber of deputies, strengthening his bid to form the Congo's first independent government.

In an election for the chamber's first president, Lumumba's candidate won 74 votes, against 58 for the man backed by Joseph Kasavubu, a more moderate leader. One vote went to an independent. Four members of the 137-seat house were absent.

Thunderous table thumping greeted the result: The ballots were collected in a tin wastebasket hurriedly pressed into service for this most important vote since the house first assembled last week.

Independence from Belgium is only nine days away, and negotiations between Kasavubu and Lumumba for a broad coalition government have broken down.

Napoleon's Adage About an army traveling on its stomach has not been forgotten by contemporary commanders. These National Guard engineers from

These Days

Espionage Agents Operate Without Regard for Laws

Soviet agents take the law in their own hands whenever they so desire. Probably all agents do that. For instance, Israeli agents kidnapped Adolf Eichmann from Argentina. The puzzling Czajka affair is another in point.

Sokolsky

The evening of Nov. 29, 1959, Washington's metropolitan police department was informed by the Polish embassy and state department that while Antoni Czajka was out with his two children, his wife was brutally attacked by three men who had forced their way into the Czajka apartment in request for photographs and documents. Antoni Czajka is second secretary of the Polish Embassy in Washington. The police could not understand why the police were called.

Police were required to wait several days before processing the apartment for fingerprints, and only fingerprints of the Czajka family were found, despite the fact that one of the alleged intruders was ungloved, as proven by a minute description of a ring he wore. Mrs. Czajka was able to give a detailed description of only one man and had only the vaguest recollection of the remaining two. Mrs. Czajka recalled she prevented three men from taking one article by wresting it from their grasp.

It is not understandable how Mrs. Czajka could describe anything if she was in pictures in the dark without exposing herself. It can be hidden and worked from another room. It is used to get the goods on a man who engages in any form of sex relations and who then can be freely blackmailed either by making his indecencies known to his family or to his government. Frightened men often become spies.

Intruders Suspicious

Such puzzling cases often lead to the conclusion that the intruders are looking for documents because they suspect a double-cross, double espionage, or counter espionage. Sometimes, particularly in the case of a woman, an attack is made on a blabbermouth to frighten her. Of course, not only women are blabbermouths or indiscreet; sometimes, men do very foolish things.

For instance, there is a U.S. citizen on official business in an iron curtain country who was compromised by a combination of communist-provided maid service and an infra-red camera which takes pictures in the dark. When communist officials attempted to blackmail him into espionage, he refused to cooperate and told his superiors what had happened.

The infra-red camera is used constantly as it takes pictures in the dark without exposing itself. It can be hidden and worked from another room. It is used to get the goods on a man who engages in any form of sex relations and who then can be freely blackmailed either by mak-

cars love SHELL

At Shell we spend literally thousands of hours every year getting to know what gasoline new cars like best. And when we think of the many gasoline improvements we've been able to develop (TCP* additive, for instance, to make engines run smooth), we believe all this research is well worth while. If your car hasn't tasted a Shell gasoline with TCP, you're due for a rewarding experience. Why not discover how smooth your car can run—how far you can go on a gallon? Your Shell dealer is the man to see.

Budget Director Asks Congress To Cut Expenses

Ike's 1961 Proposal May be Unbalanced, Maurice Stans Says

Washington —(U)— Maurice Stans, the man who counts the billions in the nation's budget, has pleaded with congress to lay off big spending programs.

President Eisenhower's 1961 budget, said Budget Director Stans Tuesday is in "acute jeopardy" of becoming unbalanced.

If all or most of the measures now pending in congress are enacted, Stans said, "they will shatter the hopes of millions of taxpayers that in due time there might be tax reduction and reform, while meeting our solemn obligation to reduce the staggering $290 billion public debt."

Provides Surplus

Stans made his plea in a letter to Rep. John Taber of New York, ranking Republican of the house ways and means committee. Its release seemed timed for maximum effect as congress jostled in to the final weeks before adjournment.

Eisenhower's $80 billion budget for the 1961 fiscal year, which starts July 1, provides a surplus of $4 billion. But Stans said that was forecast on the basis of holding spending to the president's recommended levels and enactment of higher postal rates and gasoline taxes.

The higher postal rates have been buried by a house committee in this election year. Congress raised the gasoline tax one cent last year, but has done nothing to meet Eisenhower's request for another half cent this year.

Budget Busters

Stans singled out as budget-busting items the lack of postal rate increases, the proposed pay increase for federal workers, extra defense and welfare legislation, and house approval of tax deductions to self-employed persons for pension savings.

The senate, perhaps, to forestall just such attacks as Stans', this week voted to increase federal tax revenue rather than cut it. It extended corporation and excise taxes and voted to add another $650 million by tightening restrictions in tax laws. However, the fate of these amendments was dubious as the bill headed to a senate-house conference committee.

Pauling Firm in Refusal to Name His Associates

Washington —(U)— Linus Pauling today stood by his refusal to give senate investigators the names of fellow scientists who helped his campaign for a ban on nuclear weapons tests.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.), acting chairman of the internal security subcommittee, said the group will consider citing the Nobel prize winner chemist for contempt of congress unless he changes his mind.

The subcommittee yesterday gave Pauling until Aug. 9 to surrender lists of names it demanded from him.

Pauling in 1957 and 1958 circulated a petition to the United Nations against nuclear weapon tests, and collected the signatures of 11,000 scientists in 49 countries.

Pauling said he wouldn't mind giving the committee the names of those to whom he had written letters in an attempt to enlist them in his private crusade, but he refused to name those who responded and helped in the work "as a matter of conscience, as a matter of morality, as a matter of justice."

Mobilize Negroes' Economic Power, NAACP Advised

St. Paul, Minn. —(U)— Mobilization of the buying power of the nation's 18 million Negroes as an economic weapon in the fight for civil rights was urged today by an official of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People.

"We must realize, as the businessman does, that dollars, though green in color, are raceless," Henry Lee Moon, NAACP public relations director, said at a workshop session of the group's 51st annual convention.

"If our purchasing power is properly mobilized," he said, "it can make an important contribution to the solution of some of the vexing problems which now bedevil us."

Another workshop speaker asserted that "the AFL-CIO has been losing its influence among Negro workers throughout the south."

Herbert Hill, NAACP labor secretary, said the southern Negro worker's "acute sense of alienation and rejection from organized labor" is becoming increasingly evident in union elections.

was hoisted into orbit by the first Thor-Able-star last April 13. Both are forerunners of an operational network of Transit satellites that can give ships, submarines and airplanes accurate position fixes in any weather, day or night, anywhere in the world.

Two or three more test Transits are scheduled for launching before the system becomes operational, probably in 1962. Then, four of these space lighthouses will whirl about the earth in evenly-spaced orbits. They will radio down a constant stream of information to be translated by navigators into longitude and latitude.

They are expected to provide accuracies within one-tenth of a mile. Present navigation aids give position fixes of half a mile at best and are dependent on weather.

The defense department has given high military priority to the Transit program because of its importance to Polaris missile submarines. By extending a whip antenna above the ocean surface, these nuclear subs will be able to obtain a position reading from the nearest Transit. This information would be vital in plotting missile trajectories.

Radiation Measure

Primary mission of the piggyback satellite was to measure various types of radiation in the ionosphere, an electrified belt of thin air extending from 35 miles to several hundred miles above the earth.

Scientists are mainly interested in learning to what extent radio waves are refracted, or bent, as they pass through the ionosphere. Thus, it could prove beneficial to the Transit program, whose position determining signals must penetrate this area.

Better knowledge of the ionosphere also is important before man can venture forth to other planets.

By studying signals from the Transits, researchers also will gain a better idea of the shape of the earth and the precise distance between certain points. The navy reported that Transit I-B has confirmed what an early Vanguard detected, that the earth is slightly pear-shaped.

The two Transits are traveling different courses, providing data on how the operational models will behave in different areas.

The Transit satellites are designed by the Applied Physics laboratory of Johns Hopkins university. The piggyback moonlet was developed by the Naval Research laboratory.

State Announces New Method for Supplying Fuel

Madison —(U)— The state administration Tuesday announced a new procedure for supplying gasoline to state traffic patrol vehicles and predicted the system would save about $40,000 a year.

Gov. Nelson said the administration department in cooperation with the motor vehicle department and state highway commission had worked out the arrangement. It provides for supplier-installed bulk tanks at 16 strategically located weighing stations and district patrol offices.

Nelson said suppliers will keep the tanks filled at a cost of 5.6 to 9.4 cents a gallon less than the credit card prices now paid by state patrol officers. Last year, the patrol purchased 568,000 gallons of gasoline.

In addition to the dollar saving, Nelson said the system would reduce time now lost in refueling patrol cars.

Baptist Association Convention Opposes Catholic President

Kansas City, Kan. —(U)— The 2,000 delegates to the American Baptist association national convention have adopted unanimously a resolution opposing the election of a Roman Catholic as president of the United States.

The action was taken last night after the association president, Dr. Hoyt Chastain of Malvern, Ark., told the group: "No man can be loyal to the United States and the Vatican at the same time."

"Baptists have never opposed a man for president because of his religion," he said, "but Catholicism is more than a religion. The Vatican is a political state."

The association claims a membership of 600,000 in more than 3,000 churches.

Tyrone Power's Estate Settled

Los Angeles —(U)— Actress Linda Christian settled her suit against the $800,000 estate of the late actor Tyrone Power and will receive something less than the $200,000 she had asked.

Under the settlement in superior court yesterday, Miss Christian, a former wife of Power, will pay $34,850 and receive full ownership of the $108,700 Bel Air home where they lived.

Their children, Romina, 8, and Taryn, 6, will have a $25,000 lien on the house if it is sold. Otherwise they will inherit it. The children also have a joint estate of $66,888.

Power, who died in 1958, divided the bulk of his estate into five trust funds including one each for the two children.

His widow, Mrs. Deborah Power Loew, will receive an other as will his son, Tyrone William, 17 months. The fifth fund is for Power's sister, Mrs. Anne Hardenbergh.

House Ready For Vote on Health Bill

not they draw social security benefits.

Although neither may now be considered by the house, both are expected to be considered during senate action on the bill.

Under the proposal before the house, each state could set up a new category under its public welfare program. It would include older persons not destitute of means for ordinary living but unable to pay heavy medical bills. Each state would decide how much to provide in benefits for such persons, up to maximums including 120 days hospitalization, unlimited doctors' services, $300 worth of drugs and $300 worth of laboratory fees.

U.S. Contributions

The federal government would contribute, according to the resources of each state, 50 to 65 per cent of the cost. The price tag has been put at about $195 million federal, $147 million state funds annually.

Among the other social security law changes in the package bill before the house today are provisions which would:

1. Remove the age qualification, 50 years, for disability benefits. This would affect about 250,000 persons, disabled workers and their dependents.
2. Include in the old age program about 25,000 widows, aged 75 or older, who do not now qualify because their husbands lacked social security coverage.
3. Bring about 150,000 self-employed physicians into the retirement system.
4. Increase allotments for about 400,000 children of deceased workers.

Church of Nazarene Shows Big Gains in Membership, Finances

Kansas City —(U)— The Church of the Nazarene showed big gains in membership and finances during the 1950s.

Dr. T. S. Ludwig, general secretary, told the church's 15th quadrennial general assembly Tuesday that domestic membership increased by 86,813 to a total of 311,300 during the 10 years. He also reported a total of 4,686 churches, a gain of 1,200.

Per capita giving, among Nazarenes increased from an average of $104 to $135, and total contributions rose from $38 million to $42 million.

Accidental Deaths Decreased in '59, Council Reports

Madison — Accidents took the lives of 1,906 Wisconsin residents last year, 63 fewer than in 1958, the Wisconsin Council of Safety reported today. The report will be distributed at the council's annual meeting Friday at Elkhart Lake.

The 1959 deaths included 1,776 from off-the-job accidents, an increase from 1958, and 111 on-the-job accidents, a decrease. Urban traffic deaths increased while rural traffic deaths decreased.

Officers of the council include H. J. Jobelius, Appleton, Wis., president; Howard Aderhold, Menasha, Les Forde, Kaukauna, and John Paulus, Oshkosh, directors, and G. E. McCork.

Change Execution Day To Ease Minute Petitions Is Suggestion

Carmel, Calif. —(U)— California should change the day of its gas chamber executions from Friday to Wednesday, Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk suggests.

Such a change would ease the handling of last minute writs and petitions, Mosk told the annual California district attorneys conference.

Friday as execution day was established by custom through the years. The state supreme court regularly meets on Mondays and Tuesdays, but must be called into extraordinary session if stay of execution petitions are filed on Wednesday or Thursday.

Ask Pay Hike For Three at City Home

End Probation for New Superintendent, Matron; Raise Cook

Aug. 1 salary increases for the city home superintendent, matron and cook are being requested by the welfare and ordinance committee.

Committeemen decided Tuesday the probationary period for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bastian, superintendent and matron, should be ended, and recommends they be placed in step three of the pay plan (A $30 monthly raise).

The committee figures the couple receives $170 a month living costs, since they are furnished a house and food.

Services of Pair: Members noted the city is receiving the services of two people for $6,000 a year.

A $10 a month merit increase is recommended for Mrs. Irene Klemp, who will complete a year as cook in July.

The committee also approved publication of five ordinances recommended by the public safety committee relative to hiring meter maids, $1 meter violation fines, installation of fine boxes on meter posts downtown, rearrangement of stalls in several lots and 5-minute limits on stalls at downtown intersections.

Painter's Strike Begins Third Day

A work stoppage by members of Painter's local 1098 went into its third day today as a federal conciliator met with union officials and four contractors involved.

Joseph Conley, Green Bay, a NLRB mediator was meeting with contractors at noon today in an attempt to settle a wage disagreement arising out of a new contract. The old contract expired June 1.

The painters are striking against the Appleton Paint Contractors, Inc., Vander Maazen painters, Joseph J. Jochman company and Elmer Kranzsch, Inc.

Harlow Feavel, 2312 N. Union street heads the Painter's local.

Dismiss Charge Against Woman

A charge of failure to yield the right-of-way against Mrs. Joan M. Hartwig, 1112 N. Leminwah street, has been dismissed by Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiede.

Judge Schmiede ruled there was insufficient evidence to support the charge brought by Appleton police. Mrs. Hartwig was arrested last Dec. 11 at Oneida and Summer streets after an accident.

Bert Herreid, Former Store Manager, Dies

Bert Herreid, 70, of 823 W. Commercial street, died unexpectedly at his home at 8:30 a. m. today.

He was born Aug. 31, 1889, in Ettrick, Wis., and lived in Milwaukee and LaCrosse before moving to Appleton 21 years ago. He managed the Gamble store before retiring seven years ago. He was a World War I veteran.

Wichmann Funeral home is making funeral arrangements.

Surviving are the widow; one daughter, Mrs. David Ragen, Neenah; one son, Glenn, Livermore, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Joseph Obrecht, Chicago, and two grandchildren.

Correction

In an account of street and sanitation committee deliberations in Tuesday's Post-Crescent it was stated street and sanitation workers would get an additional day of vacation for every year of service after two years. The statement was in error. The one day for every year of service does not start until after 10 years. The Post-Crescent regrets the error.

Surplus Bigger in '60, Smaller in '61

BY SYLVIA PORTER

President Eisenhower's budget surplus for the year to end at midnight next Thursday will be "appreciably larger" than the $200 million surplus he forecast this past January, according to informed Washington authorities.

Eisenhower's budget surplus for the year to start the next morning, July 1, will be "substantially smaller" than the $4.2 billion surplus he predicted in January, according to realistic Washington sources.

The president's record for his eight budget years from mid-1953 to mid-1961 will be exactly half in the black, half in the red — four surpluses, four deficits.

$13 Billion Swing
The most spectacular budget achievement of his administration will be the fantastic switch from the biggest deficit in peacetime history in 1959 to a modest surplus in 1960 — a swing totaling more than $13 billion in only a 12-month period.

Not until the last hours before the books actually close on the 1960 fiscal year will officials publicly go on the line with precise statistics on the extent to which government income is exceeding outgo this year. But it's obvious that, despite a much lower than anticipated tax take from corporations, other factors have kept the budget in the black, such as a heavier tax take from individuals, savings due to the recent drop in the treasury's borrowing costs, lower than expected spending on farm crop supports and the willingness of the Democratic-controlled congress to limit spending programs.

But the next budget? Already the $4.2 billion surplus forecast with which the president startled the nation in January seems doomed.

Congress Affects It
This projection assumed that congress would vote a postal rate increase bringing in $554 million. Congress is ignoring the request.

It assumed congress would not vote a pay hike to government employees. Congress is voting one totaling $697 million a year.

It assumed congress would not repeal or reduce present federal taxes on telephone service, telegrams, travel. "Losses" ranging from a few hundred millions a year and up are becoming probable instead.

It assumed congress would not boost the military budget above the administration's figures or approve other new spending projects. As the 1961 year rolls on, all the odds are that spending programs will be expanded; the budget will swell. It certainly won't shrink.

Still a Surplus
But still a surplus is expected in the next year — a billion or two under the original estimate, but still a surplus.

The fundamental behind every prediction of a budget surplus in the 12 months now to begin is that business will remain strong enough to produce the taxes from us and from corporations. The official estimate is that the economy will be producing goods and services at a rate of about $515-$518 billion as this calendar year ends, against a rate of only moderately over $500 billion now. If, instead of rising, our economy goes into a perceptible slide, that surplus will fade into a deficit fast.

On the basis that the economy will live up to the official expectations, though, the first two budget years of the 1960s will be comfortably in the black — against only three budget surpluses in the entire decade of the 1950s.

The first GOP administration in a generation is at least bowing out of office with one of its most cherished goals attained.

Chinese Reds Trying to Lure Tibetans Home

Broadcasts Offer Fair Treatment to Refugees in India

Darjeeling, India—(U)—The Chinese Reds are trying to lure home some 10,000 Tibetan refugees in India by broadcasting promises they will be treated with justice and mercy.

Observers along the Indian border say Chinese authorities are worried about recent publicity given to refugees' stories about conditions in Red-occupied Tibet.

Tibetans fleeing across the border have told of atrocities against groups resisting communism, methodical elimination of the Buddhist religion and a severe food shortage among the Tibetan people.

In recent weeks there have been reports of an upsurge of fighting against the Reds by Tibetans made desperate by oppression.

Radio Lhasa broadcasts continue to describe the Dalai Lama — spiritual and temporal leader of Tibet now in exile in India — as chairman of the Chinese preparatory committee for Tibet, top-ranking Tibetan official appointed by Chinese. The broadcasts insist the fugitive god king is being held in India against his will.

Meanwhile, the number of refugees in Darjeeling and the Kalimpong area at the end of the old trade route into Tibet continues to increase. Authorities are trying to settle the refugees in less sensitive parts of north India, but by the time two months of paper work is completed to move one refugee, he has disappeared and two others are in his place.

Local intelligence officials say, however, there has been no noticeable or known circulation of communist literature designed to lure refugees home.

Credit County Police With Helping Save Life Of Critically Ill Man

An Appleton doctor has credited the Outagamie county traffic patrol with helping save the life of a man critically ill at New London Community hospital.

The doctor said the patrol's fast action in completing an emergency medicine run June 15 was instrumental in keeping the man alive.

Patrolman Joseph Vanden Over received the emergency call from headquarters at 11:32 p.m., while at Highways 78 and 45. Vanden Over rushed to St. Elizabeth hospital, picked up the medicine and delivered it to waiting New London police at 11:52 p.m.

Guys and Dolls Square Dancers Dos-a-Dos at Summer Festival

Caller Bill Sweet's voice booms throughout the hall as he directs the 30 couples, members of the Guys and Dolls square dancers, in their steps. Lyn Meyer, president of the group, was in charge of Sunday's social at Richmond school.

Ladies Form a Star according to the directions of the caller Sunday evening at Richmond school when the Guys and Dolls square dancers met. In the foreground are Mr. and Mrs. Les Schwerbel, Appleton.

Although These Costumes Might be frowned upon by the founding fathers of square dancing, at least Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreimer and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Parish were comfortable and at ease. The group was getting in practice for the second square dance convention at Whitewater in August.

Club Pins and Diplomas were presented to Guys and Dolls Sunday evening during their social at Richmond school. Receiving pins are Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Goetz and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Christianson. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Batley also received special awards. The dancers will continue to meet on the first Friday of each month.

Year As Exchange Student Has Memories for New Zealand Girl

BY MARY METZIG
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

On June 27, Miss Susan Cotterill will be leaving Appleton to return to her native New Zealand after a year as a foreign exchange student under the American Field Service Exchange program.

"It's been a wonderful year. I'll be sorry to leave," she commented, explaining that was her wistful remark about life in the two countries is her stay here with the A. D. very similar. People in New Zealand read a lot about Parkway boulevard, since her arrival last September. Her departure may well be as painful for her friends and classmates and the members of the many service clubs who had an opportunity to hear her speak about her homeland.

"Americans are like New Zealanders underneath," she commented, explaining that life in the two countries is her stay here with the A. D. very similar. People in New Zealand read a lot about Parkway boulevard, since her arrival last September. Her departure may well be as painful for her friends and classmates and the members of the many service clubs who had an opportunity to hear her speak about her homeland.

"It's been a wonderful year. I'll be sorry to leave," she commented, explaining that was her wistful remark about life in the two countries is her stay here with the A. D. very similar. People in New Zealand read a lot about Parkway boulevard, since her arrival last September. Her departure may well be as painful for her friends and classmates and the members of the many service clubs who had an opportunity to hear her speak about her homeland.

Miss Susan Cotterill, an American Field service exchange student from New Zealand living with the A.D. Wilkinsons, 501 E. Parkway boulevard, tries to share some memories of her year as a student at Appleton High school with the family's dog. Miss Cotterill will be leaving Appleton for her homeland June 27.

one drinks so much tea. They have it before breakfast, at breakfast, during mid-morning lunch, at noon, during the afternoon and at supper time. "Before I came they never had tea much. They just picked up the habit from me."

One of her biggest problems here proved to be learning to eat cake with a fork. In New Zealand cakes aren't eaten for dessert, but rather saved for morning or afternoon tea. "And it's eaten with your fingers," the New Zealand girl said. "It seemed strange to see Americans using forks."

Seeing a real snow storm was also a new experience for Miss Cotterill. Christmas in New Zealand comes in the middle of the summer and instead of sledding, swimming is the seasonal sport. "I had seen snow before on the south island of New Zealand, but I'd never actually seen it snow. People tell me that I should have been here last winter."

Walking on Ice

Getting used to walking on ice was quite an embarrassing problem for her. She remembers walking out of school one afternoon and promptly sitting down on the sidewalk. She picked herself up only to sit down again. It got so bad, she continued with a laugh, that the Wilkinsons had to put rubber on the bottom of her shoes to keep her from falling down.

As for the fads and customs of American teenagers, the little things sometimes proved to be the most fascinating to the New Zealand girl. It seemed strange at first to see American girls wearing bobby socks. In New Zealand girls only wear them until they're 12. "Of course how I'm wearing them just like anybody else," she added.

Miss Althea Gaffney, daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Gaffney, 208 E. Kimberly avenue, Kimberly, became the bride of Harold Acker, Lakeshore drive, Menasha, at 11 a.m. today at Holy Name Catholic church.

The Rev. Thomas Mortell officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Nicholas Gaffney, Kimberly, and was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Lawrence Walbrun, Menasha, and Mrs. Robert Smith, Kaukauna.

George Acker was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mrs. Elizabeth Acker, 835 W. Fifth street.

A noon luncheon was served at the bride's home and a supper will be held at Hammen's bar in Little Chute. The bride's home will also be the setting for the reception.

After a wedding trip to western Wisconsin, the couple will reside on Lakeshore drive in Menasha.

The former Miss Gaffney is a graduate of Kimberly High school and is manager of Kimberly Dry Cleaners. Her husband graduated from Appleton High school and is a lab technician at Miller Electric Manufacturing company, Inc.

Mrs. Pynenberg Pair Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

Miss June Ebben, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ebben, 615 Monroe street, Little Chute, became the bride of Daniel Pynenberg in a double ring ceremony at 9 a.m. today at St. John Catholic church, Little Chute. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Pynenberg, 626 Jefferson street, Little Chute.

The Rev. Martin Vosbeek celebrated the nuptial high mass. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father.

Miss Nancy Weyenberg, Little Chute, was chosen maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Ebben, the bride's sister, and Mrs. Harold Evers, Kimberly, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Mary Kay Ebben, the bride's sister, and Miss Paula Verhagen, Kaukauna, were junior bridesmaids.

Mr. Pynenberg chose his brother, Norbert, Kaukauna, as best man. The bride's brother, Adrian Ebben, and Harold Evers, Kimberly, were groomsmen. Ushering duties were shared by James Ourada and Leon Van Boxtel. Mark Ebben, the bride's brother, was ring bearer.

Guests attended a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents. Dinner, reception and dance are being held at Van Abel's, Hollandtown.

The newlyweds are graduates of St. John High school, Little Chute. The bride is employed by Kimberly - Clark corporation, Kimberly. Her husband graduated from St. Norbert college, West De Pere, and in August will enter the U. S. Army as a second lieutenant.

Following a wedding trip to northern Wisconsin, the couple will live in Texas.

Church Plans Potluck Picnic, Outdoor Service

The annual Faith Lutheran church outdoor service and picnic will be held Sunday at Telulah park. Services will be held at 10 a.m. in the park pavilion and a potluck dinner will be served at 11:30 a.m. Members have been asked to bring plates and silverware and a salad or dessert.

Games and contests for Sunday school children and adults are on the afternoon's agenda.

James Ormson is general chairman and will be assisted by Hanford Baldock, James Gander, Mrs. Martin Kiepe, Carl Mueller, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Eugene Dellacecca, Charles Moxley and Floyd Peterson. Don Schoenfeld and Miss Edith Rentner have prepared tickets for distribution to the Sunday school children.

Junior Golfers Compete at BDM

Rick Martinek and Ann Jack placed first in the 9-hole event during children's day at Butte des Morts Golf club Tuesday. Five-hole competition was won by Tom Trettin and Beth Borsum and 3-hole by Nadine Cohodas and Tom Lhost.

Good fellowship prizes were donated by Everett Leonard, club pro. Mrs. Henry Techlin was chairman and was assisted by Mrs. J. R. Wall and Mrs. Donald Jabas.

Bride - Elect Feted at Party

Miss Armella Young was honored by her friends at a miscellaneous bridal shower Monday evening at the home of Miss Shirley Koerner, 928 W. Summer street. Guests played scrabble. Luncheon was served.

Miss Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Young, 918 W. Summer street, will be married on July 2 to Robert Art, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Art, 819 Nicolet boulevard, Neenah.

New Zealand Girl Has Eventful Year

It's more voluntary than it is here. The average marriage age is higher, as more students are just dating for fun. There are almost no high school marriages and young people just don't seem as rushed about it.

Social Activities
The social lives of students in America and New Zealand are also different, she continued. During the school term a New Zealand teenager doesn't have a social life at all, at least in a boarding school. Schools place less importance on extra-curricular activities and one has to study harder. Then, during holidays and vacations, students almost go to extremes with social activities. School never actually is considered to be one's real life and everyone almost lives from one vacation to another.

There isn't as much age group separation in New Zealand schools either, she added. Here the sophomores, juniors, senior and junior high school students don't seem to mix with anyone not their own age. In New Zealand the ranches are more isolated and there aren't many people in one area, so everyone seems to mix. The age division comes after the high school level. Once a student graduates from high school he is considered to be grown up, she explained, because few students go on to college.

Miss Cotterill seems to feel that the balance between social life and studies in the American high school is a good idea, but that too much emphasis is placed on extra-curricular activities. Scholarships, for example, should be based more on scholastic achievement than social activities. The wide variety of subjects available to an American student and the more friendly and relaxed relationship of student and teacher met with her enthusiastic approval.

What are the most frequent misconceptions people here have about New Zealand? Americans sometimes think that it's backward and uncivilized in New Zealand, she answered. They ask about the kangaroos and aborigines, but there aren't any. The native people in New Zealand are Polynesian as Hawaiians and live just as we do. As for kangaroos, people seem to associate New Zealand with Australia, but "we're really 1,200 miles away, and few people from New Zealand ever go there. The two countries aren't really alike," she said.

People also seem to ask about England a lot, she continued. The United States is actually closer than New Zealand. New Zealand is part of the Commonwealth, but, like Canada, it's a completely separate country and "we all ways think of ourselves as being New Zealanders," she explained.

Screening Applicants
How was she chosen to make the trip to the United States? The American Field service in New Zealand does not screen applicants through the high schools as it does in this country, New Zealand is divided geographically into four screening districts and money is raised through donations and not fund drives in the school. "It's really a pity," she commented, "that the schools in New Zealand have so little to do with the program."

After leaving Appleton, Miss Cotterill explained that the American Field Service students will be touring this country together before leaving for their homes on July 27. She will be meeting her parents in Europe and will tour the continent with them for two months before returning to New Zealand. She will return to school in March.

It isn't really hard to realize what the trip and stay here has meant to Miss Cotterill. "I love it here," she said quietly, explaining that she would like to come back in three years after she has finished college.

And the people of Appleton who have come to know her, hope she will.

Women Golfers' Teams Compete

Women of the Flower Golf league of Reid Municipal Golf course participated in regular weekly play Tuesday. The award for lowest number of putts went to Mrs. Leonard Burhans. Mrs. James Gorsky won in the day's special event category.

Approach shots were sunk by Mrs. Orville Struts and Mrs. James Gorsky. Low scorers were Mrs. Burhans and Mrs. Clem Sullivan.

In Good Taste Teenagers Wrong to Take Trip

BY EMILY POST
Dear Mrs. Post: I am a girl 16 years of age and a senior in high school. My friend and I would like to go to Washington for a week-end. We would leave Friday evening and return Sunday evening. My mother objects to my going on the ground that we are too young to be traveling alone and staying in a big hotel. My mother respects your judgment and I feel sure that if you say there is no impropriety in our going, she will give her consent.

Answer: I'm sorry, but I agree with your mother that you two are too young to go alone to Washington and stay in a hotel.

Dear Mrs. Post: During a discussion at lunch the other day I said that I thought it looked very awkward to sit with the left hand in one's lap while eating and that it was better to rest it on the table's edge. My friend said it was a must to keep the left hand in the lap regardless of looks.

Answer: Many people do find it awkward to sit

New officers and committee chairmen will meet at 7:30 p.m. June 29 at the Legion Memorial building for an executive meeting.

Junior auxiliary members presented a program telling about their projects throughout the year. Mrs. Leonard Ney, chairman, Mrs. Schnell, Mrs. Kositzke and Mrs. Hoffman were in charge of the social hour.

Your Problems

Shocked Hostess Wonders About Guests' Opening Cabinet

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Why in the world would guests who come to spend a few hours in a home be interested in what's in the medicine cabinet?

Several weeks ago I entertained some friends and one of the women apolo-Anne Landers gazed at breaking a jar of cold cream which was in the cabinet door and it fell out.

When I told my husband I could not understand why she opened the cabinet door he said, "People always do this and I will prove it to you." He rigged a little scotch tape device on the cabinet door and showed me how to retape it after it had been detached.

Yesterday I had 12 women in for bridge. I checked the tape after each of eight women had been in the bathroom. To my horror I discovered the tape had been broken seven times! Can you tell me why this interest in other people's medicine cabinets? — Dumbfounded.

Dear Dumbfounded: Humans are a complicated, unpredictable mixture of mysterious motivations. Why do they want the front of the bus, the back of the church and the middle of the road?

There are many reasons for opening a medicine cabinet in the home of a hostess. Most of them come under the heading of plain nastiness. One woman in 25 could be looking for an aspirin. The other 24 are checking to see if it's orderly, or if the family takes a lot of medicine and if so, what kind. Don't ask me why it should matter, it apparently does.

DEAR ANN: I have a girl friend who has a lot bigger allowance than mine (like four times as much). We are both 14 years old.

At the end of the week I'm broke so she insists on buying the tickets to the movie and then she treats me to a soda or hamburgers. She also pays the bus fare for both of us. I don't want this charity drive to end our friendship because we get along great together. I'm uneasy about her spending money on me because I have no way of paying her back. Thank you. — P. S. I am a girl.

Dear Toby: I'm happy you added that P. S. I had you figured for a boy.

Cut out the domestic aid program and tell your friend you appreciate her generosity but you can no longer accept it. Plenty of interesting places are free. Let her know she doesn't have to buy your company.

DEAR ANN: I married a man whose wife died six years ago. I think the world of him and we have been very happy together, except for one thing. His daughter and her family will not come to visit us because this is the same house where she grew up and her mother died.

We must call on them at their homes since they refuse to set foot in this house. I am sick at heart over this and my husband knows it. He says to ignore it but I can't. I'm sure he is hurt as I am, but he is a strong person and does not show it. What can I do?—N.A.

Dear N.A.: You can continue to punish yourself about something which is not your fault and which you cannot control or change.

Or you can be mature and accept the situation and continue to visit them. The third alternative is to move into another house — although it hardly seems worth the trouble.

To learn the booby-traps of teenage drinking, write for Ann Landers' booklet, "Teenage Drinking," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The 50th Anniversary of joining the Franciscan order was celebrated Saturday by Sister Mary Georgia, left, at St. Elizabeth hospital. Sister Mary Evarista, right, has been a member of the order for 75 years. Five of Sister Mary Georgia's brothers attended the celebration. They are William, Edward, Joseph and Anthony Schnuck, all of Kenosha, and George Schnuck, Milwaukee. She was a cook in various houses of the order for 46 years before coming to St. Elizabeth hospital.

and edge stitch on machine; sew buckle to other end.

Q. How can one with round shoulders fix patterns? The back of the neck is never right and it is very annoying because the rest of the dress fits perfectly.

A. I'm delighted to answer, for I have received many letters asking this same question.

Cut your pattern across full part of the back. Raise the upper section for the extra length necessary. Insert tissue paper underneath the slash and extend the center back and neckline. Keep the three-fourths inch wider and the grain of the fabric. Lay a backing. Baste under three-eighths inch on long sides of the amount you added at the center back. (See illustration.) Questions On Sewing

SEAMS TO ME
By Patricia Scott

There is no doubt about it, almost everything can be made at home, but I must emphasize almost.

In certain cases, professional things are far superior to the home-made, no matter how much effort is put into the do-it-yourself project.

Q. No matter how hard I

Could you advise me on the correct procedure?

A. I will have to be honest with you. Nothing can replace a professionally-made belt. I always have mine made, as do all the dressmakers I know. Of course, if you are pressed for time or there is some other reason why you must make a belt, then I can go along with it. But the extra money you spend on having a belt made is well worth the investment. A good belt makes all the difference in the world in the appearance of a garment.

However, if desperate, here is one way: (First let me say that the instructions and illustrations on belt backing packages are extremely good.) Cut fabric on lengthwise grain; use purchased belt backing and point one end; cut fabric three-fourths inch wider and one-half inch longer than backing. Baste under three-eighths inch on long sides of the fabric; place on wrong side of backing pointing end; baste

A Lovelier You

'Instant' Tans for All

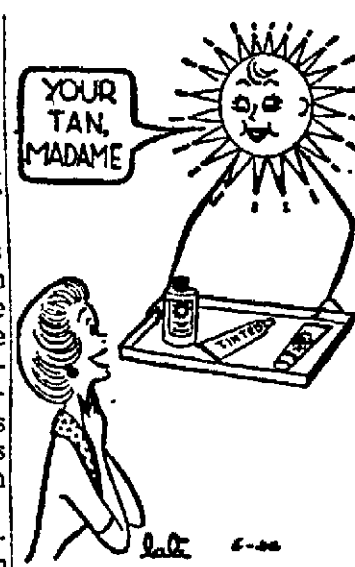

There is something new under the sun—a safe way to get tan quickly. Several kinds of suntan lotions now offer that boon.

One type guarantees a tan in about four hours, whether or not you are exposed to sun! If applied at bedtime, this lotion will give you a golden tan while you sleep. Exposure to sun hastens and deepens the tan. Responsible for this remarkable action is an ingredient, protosol, which produces a tan color when it combines with the protein of the skin and the oxygen in the air.

Another variety of lotion enables you to linger longer in the sun, even at high noon, and to tan faster. During a short weekend, applications give a city-pale skin a 2-week vacation tan.

Tinted sun-bronze shade, still another lotion provides instant, although temporary, golden glints for a lily-white complexion, as it lets you safely build up the real thing.

Along with the quick-tan factor, these lotions contain moisturizers to keep the skin soft and dewy. Also included are screening agents that help prevent burning and peeling.

But mind, if you overexpose yourself to the sun, none of the lotions can save you from a burn. Their aim is a tan when and how you want it, without risk of damage. What sun-worshiper could ask for more?

For your copy of "A Lovelier Complexion," write me in care of this newspaper, enclosing a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin. (Copyright, 1960)

Designing Woman

BY ELIZABETH HILLYER

A Silky Look for the Wall—With Vinyl

A wall could hardly be more elegant than with a covering of pale textured silk — and many a wall today looks as if it had such a covering when the material isn't silk at all, but hardy, flexible vinyl plastic. The new remarkable likeness to rich fabrics is very far indeed from the start plastic had on walls. The heaviness and shine is gone from the delicately textured patterns. A great favorite is a fine moiré.

These vinyls were developed for use in offices, restaurants and other public rooms where easy care and resistance to scuffing, tears and spotting is a necessity, but they soon refined to an appearance that prompted decorators to put them in homes. The watered silk type is made by one company alone in seventeen colors, and other textures have the effect of other silks, straw cloths, linen, monk's cloth, burlap and matchstick weaves. The lightweight plastics are backed by cotton and cloths of other fibers and are hung by paper hangers using special adhesives.

Mrs. R. McM "The woodwork in the house we have just moved into has natural birch doors in the living room, dining room and den, although the door and window frames are painted to match the walls. I feel that the doors should also match the walls, especially since I don't like the shiny finish on the birch, and it isn't the same wood or in the same wood finish color as any of our furniture. Do you agree that the wall should be painted, or should they be stained the wood colors of the furniture in each room as my husband suggests? There are four doors in the living room alone."

It would surely be much simpler to paint the doors the wall colors than to try to imitate the furniture woods, which are different in grain as well as color. Matching the doors to the walls also creates in uninterrupted background, which is an advantage to most rooms, and especially to one in where there are four doors.

back at the records of the world championship, held a few weeks ago in Italy. South was Rene Bacherich, a member of the team that brought France the world championship. It makes us all feel better when a world champion commits a blunder, so this little story should spread sunshine throughout the western hemisphere.

Don Oakie, of San Francisco, led the jack of hearts from the West hand. Declarer won in dummy with the ace of hearts and led a trump to the king. Oakie played his five of spades at just the right speed, not too quickly and not too slowly.

South got the impression that East had the ace of spades, and this eventually paved the way to his downfall.

Declarer led out the ace of diamonds and a low diamond, East winning with the queen. East returned a diamond, and dummy ruffed.

Now Unbeatable

The contract was now unbeatable. South should abandon trumps. He ruffs a heart and leads a good diamond, discarding a club from dummy. West can ruff with the jack of spades and lead, a club, but South takes the ace of clubs and leads his last good diamond to discard dummy's last club. Declarer loses two trumps and a diamond, but nothing else.

Instead, however, Bacherich led another trump from dummy. He expected to find the ace of trumps at his right, in which case there was a fair chance to make an over-trick.

This was the play that made the sun shine. Oakie carefully took both of his trumps, removing all trumps from the dummy. Then he led a club, and South had to lose a club trick in addition to two trumps and a diamond.

While you're enjoying a polite snicker at South's expense, give West full credit for refusing the first trump trick so casually. If West wins the first trump with the ace, South can safely lead out a second trump after setting up his diamonds. He cannot lose his contract.

Waupaca Recount Tops Federal Census Report

City Council Canvass Adds 97 Not 3 To Population During Last Ten Years

Waupaca — Census recount figures released by Ald. John O. Brown Tuesday night placed Waupaca's population at 4,021—97 more than the 3,924 announced by the district census office of Wausau.

The census recount was asked by the council after preliminary federal figures indicated an increase of only three people for Waupaca in the last 10 years.

Mayor Lloyd Matheson instructed City Clerk Harriett Ward to forward the city's recount to the census office at St. Paul, Minn.

Brown, who was in charge of the recount, said he could "defend every name on the report by name, age and address."

The Fourth ward alderman explained how the recount was worked. Wallace Wilkening, 117 W. Fulton street, was hired by the council to take the recount.

City Divided
First the city was divided into four sections. Each block was numbered and coded and every door in each block was checked.

"The tabulation was as thorough as possible," Brown said.

"we had to go back to some houses six or seven times before we got the information. There were only six people who refused to cooperate," he said, "and we got the information from neighbors."

Age Groups
In addition to listing the total population, Brown's report broke the population down according to age groups with the over 65 age group representing the largest percentage, 17.8.

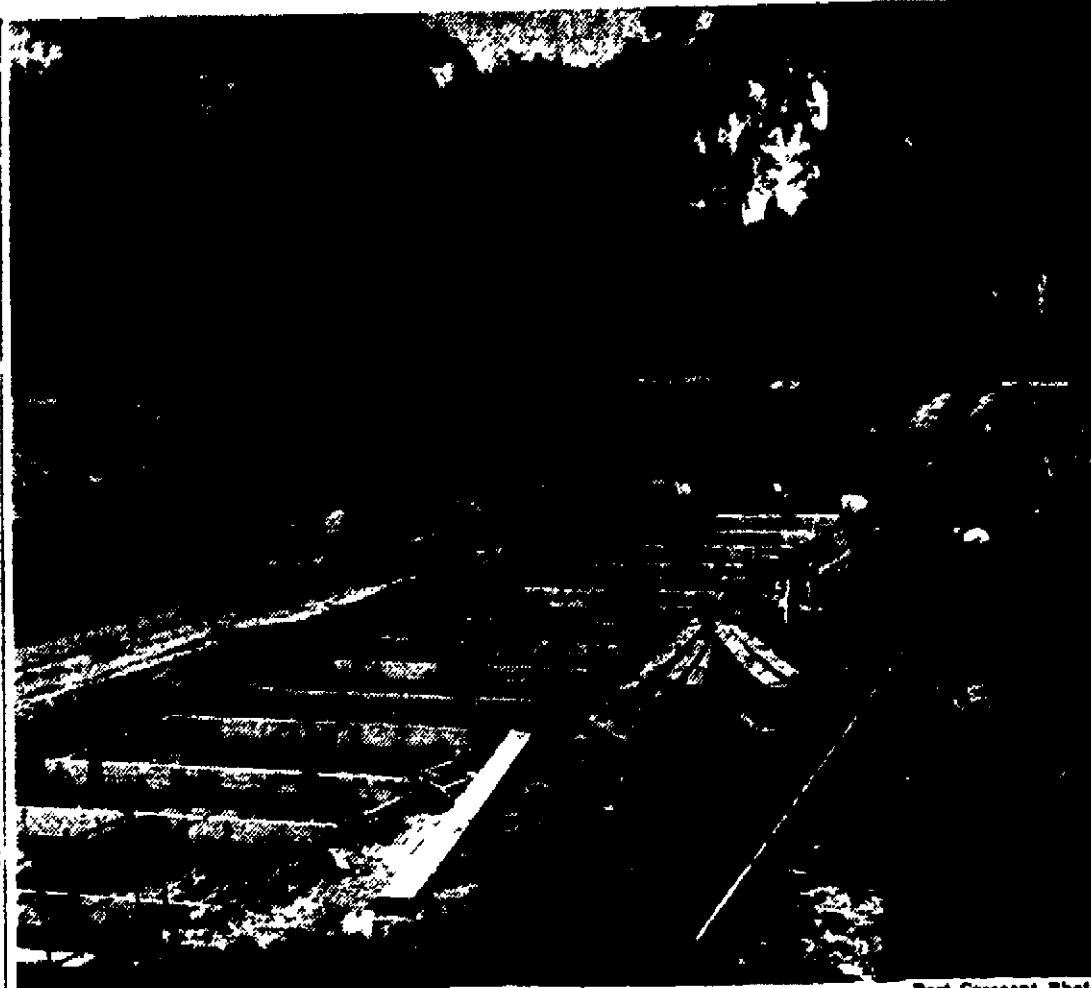

The 6-15 age group was next with 17.6, but the 16-20 age bracket represented only 6.6 per cent of the population and the 21-30 group was not much higher with 9.4 per cent.

The other age brackets by percentage were: under five, 10.5; 31-40, 10.5 per cent; 41-50 years, 11.8, and 51-65 years, 15.8 per cent.

Democrats Get Convention Posts

Sixth, Seventh and Eighth congressional district Democrats have been named to the credentials committee for the 1960 state Democratic convention June 24 to 26 in Milwaukee.

They are Mrs. Sam BeKear, Fond du Lac, sixth district; Mrs. Thomas Hayden, Marshfield, seventh district, and Mrs. James Dillon, Green Bay, eighth district. The appointments were made by Patrick J. Lucey, state Democratic chairman.

Tells Increase in Price of Land for County Airport

Cost Jumped When Owners
Heard Sum Paid by Industry

Oshkosh — The cost of land needed for the airport expansion project took a jump when owners learned how much a manufacturing firm moving into Oshkosh had paid for a site not too far away, county board members learned Tuesday afternoon.

Supv. Elmer Steinhilber said the aviation committee had been offering a price under the appraised price until the time the amount paid by a manufacturing firm was disclosed.

From that point on the aviation committee had to offer the appraised price and much of the land is being acquired by condemnation since the owners have not accepted the county's offer.

One industrial firm, which sold its property to the county, had to pay twice as much per acre as it received from the county.

$173,024 Cost
The total 233 acres obtained will cost $173,024 which is under the $174,200 appraisal.

Even with the appraisal prices and other costs to be added, such as the abstracts, the price will be under the $200,000 authorized by the board.

Supv. Alvin Staffeld, Neenah, aviation committee chairman, reviewed the property purchases and said the plans for the control tower and runway extension were at the federal aviation agency office at Kansas City, Mo., and the project must await that agency's approval before work can begin.

A final cost figure on the airport terminal opened two years ago will not be known until a federal audit is completed.

The board authorized the aviation committee to sign a new lease with Warren Baser, operator of a flight service at the airport, to cover his operations and also the quonset hut formerly used by North Central Airlines. The lease may be renewed for several 5-year periods with the price being renegotiated at those times.

The board set Sunday, Aug. 7, as the date for the county board and county employees picnic and Tuesday, Aug. 9 as the date of its next board meeting.

Commission Okays 3 Per Cent Pay Hikes
Menasha — The water and light commission has approved 3 per cent pay raises for supervisory employees, retroactive to Feb. 1, the council learned Tuesday night.

Hourly employees are being offered the same terms as before negotiations with the municipal employees' labor union — 3 per cent pay raise, State Farm Mutual Automobile insurance, 12 cents an hour extra for the Kargus vehicle, and All-digger operator when the machine is running, retroactive surer of Kern, each pay $500. to Feb. 1.

Woman Awarded $1,000 Damages
Oshkosh — Mrs. Joseph Kern, 328 Center street, Neenah, was awarded $1,000 in damages in circuit court Tuesday and her case was dismissed.

Mrs. Kern, injured in an accident at Third and Manitowish streets in Menasha Sept. 27, 1959, charged Jean Kargus, Menasha, driver of the other car, with negligence. She asked $10,000 damages.

The stipulation stated the State Farm Mutual Automobile insurance, 12 cents an hour extra for the Kargus vehicle, and All-digger operator when the machine is running, retroactive surer of Kern, each pay $500. to Feb. 1.

No Permits, Book Sellers Forfeit
Menasha — A 17-year-old Milwaukeean, James Sassemann, today forfeited $25 and costs for selling door-to-door without a solicitor's permit. His forfeiture was accepted by Police Justice Arthur J. Ales.

Sassemann was arrested about 9:30 p.m. Tuesday on Second street while trying to sell encyclopedia sets.

Police Chief Peter Clark says transients selling without permits face fines of up to $100. Permits can be secured in the city clerk's office.

The city ordinance also provides that door-to-door selling may be done only between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Robert J. Voelz, 22, Burlington, forfeited $14.20 to Neenah police for not having a solicitor's license. He was arrested on Betty avenue Tuesday.

K-C Order Would Fill 202 Boxcars

Neenah — An order filling 202 railroad boxcars and totaling more than $1.5 million has been placed with Kimberly-Clark corporation by National Tea company.

The order, believed to be the largest single order of its kind, totals $1,563,345.

A total of 141,000 cases of paper products are involved. William J. French, Kimberly-Clark vice president, said the total order would fill 202 railroad boxcars.

Kimberly-Clark officials indicated, if the entire order were warehoused at one time, it would require a little more than four floors of the warehouse addition completed in the spring of 1959 at Lakeview mill. Each floor has 26,000 square feet of usable space with about 12 feet of clear vertical space per floor.

Val Bauman, vice president of National Tea company, added that "if all the tissue cartons involved were stacked in a 100-foot square, their height would exceed that of the Prudential building."

National Tea also announced that all six paper products included in the purchase will be on special sale during June and July in all of its 906 food stores around the country.

Youth Found Guilty Of Assault, Battery
Oshkosh — Donald Manney, 18, Oshkosh, Tuesday afternoon was found guilty of assault and battery and was fined $128.40 or 30 days in jail and an additional 30 days by Acting Municipal Judge Floyd D. Atherton. He was committed to the jail.

Assault and battery charges against Dennis Gehrke, 19, Oshkosh, were dismissed on motion of Dist. Atty. Jack Steinhilber. Manney, Gehrke and three other Oshkosh teenagers were arrested May 30 when they curbed a car occupied by William Lyon and Roger Witherbee, Oshkosh, and beat the two, inflicting facial injuries.

Reports to Council

Steffens Criticizes Closed or Secret Meetings of Two Groups

Menasha — Closed secret meetings of the Menasha board of education and Neenah-Menasha Sewerage commission received criticism Tuesday night from City Atty. Richard J. Steffens at the city council meeting.

W. H. Clifford, chairman of the Neenah-Menasha sewerage commission, today declined to comment on the report or letter. Ted R. Neely, board of education president, is out of the city and unavailable for comment.

The attorney reported on last week's city attorneys' institute at Manitowish Waters, at which Wisconsin Atty. Gen. John Reynolds instructed city attorneys to seek full compliance with the new Wisconsin law prohibiting secrecy in government. Reynolds, he added, contends boards of education in Wisconsin have been the greatest violators.

In his report, Steffens comments the local school board, "has not complied with the law, with the letter or the intent of the law. There have been committee of the whole meetings or executive sessions held as well as individual committee meetings of the school board, the time and place of which meetings not being available to the press."

"Access Denied"
Being open to the public means being open to the press, Steffens went on, especially where meeting such as homes of individual school board commissioners.

"I have also been informed," Steffens said he has advised the board of the law's provisions and believes the board has no intent to defeat the purpose of the law.

"However, I am much more concerned with the greater violation of intent of the statute" by the sewerage commission, Steffens' report went on. "I have been informed (it) has never had a public meeting and their meetings are not regular."

"Recently a member of the press was told to remove himself from the room at a regular commission hearing, and that if he did not, a policeman would be called upon to eject him from the room."

"The council should be advised that my instructions to the police department were that members of the press have the right to attend any meeting at which matters of public nature are discussed, and that any officer of the law interfering with the press from attending such meeting will be met with sharp reprimands from the city attorney's office and the expected disciplinary action from the chief of police," Steffens' report went on.

Menasha Girl Stars in Jr. Wightman

Toledo — Menasha's Diane Gilbertson won three matches in the western junior Wightman club round robin tennis tournament Tuesday and is one of two Wisconsin girls selected to spend several additional days here for further instructions with the training squad.

One of the girls defeated by Miss Gilbertson Tuesday was ranked fourth nationally, Diane and Barbara Mueller of Thiensville were the two Wisconsin girls invited to stay for several extra days. They plan to return Saturday.

Miss Gilbertson was scheduled to play at No. 4 singles but was moved up to the third position when one of the other girls was unable to make the trip. She lost her first two matches Monday.

Hits Secret Meetings of Commissions

he added, is "a municipal, not a private function."

Steffens told the council he and Atty. M. F. Crowley, who serves the sewerage commission, are in serious disagreement and that Clifford is disturbed by the law's intent.

Crowley has told Steffens the commission does not intend to comply with the statute. Steffens said Crowley told him: "If we want to hold secret meetings we will do so. There is no penalty. We are a separate body."

Steffens said while there is no penalty, the remedy is to seek a writ of mandamus from a court ordering open meetings. Then violations would be in contempt of court.

Asks State's Help
The city attorney said since Crowley has taken the position the law does not apply to the commission, he has written to the state attorney general for whatever help he may give.

Steffens' report was accepted unanimously by the council and he was commended for it.

His letter to Clifford, dated June 16, outlined the law and said Steffens and City Atty. Charles Schaller of Neenah both agree the commission meetings should be open.

The letter to the board of education, also dated June 16, explains the law and public right to attend its meetings.

Ald. Edward Stinski again criticized the sewerage commission for not having filed minutes of any meeting since April 17. At many previous council meetings, he has criticized the commission for tending in minutes at times two months after meetings.

Christian Science Reader Speaks at Twin City Church

Neenah — A former First Reader of the mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., spoke at Tuesday evening church here Tuesday evening under the auspices of the First Church of Christ Scientist, Neenah.

Theodore Wallach, Chicago, discussed the "battle for men's minds," the great barrage of propaganda being directed today at the individual. "The careful thinker," he said, "is faced with the necessity for becoming more aware of unprincipled attempts to lead and mislead human thought."

In closing he added, "You will find that you are not fooled by the disturbing pictures of insecurity with which mortal mind manages to frighten itself. . . you will find that which is making a sanitary the understanding of God's and storm sewer survey for nearness and power equips the city, met this noon at the you with unfailing ability to Valley Inn with plant engineers of major Neenah industry to outline the survey and to secure their cooperation and assistance with several aspects of the survey."

Approximately 400 persons attended the lecture.

Menty Proposes Occupation End

London—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery says both Russia and the western allies should agree to end their "military occupation" of Europe.

The former deputy commander of the North Atlantic Alliance's European forces said NATO nations had enough home strength and that both sides must agree to control and inspection of their forces.

Withdrawal, Montgomery said in a copyrighted article in the Sunday Times "cannot be implemented fully for some considerable time." He urged that it be agreed on in principle to lessen tension.

Most of Montgomery's article dwelt on impressions he received during his recent visit to Red China. The United States, he said, should stop quarreling with Peiping and offer a friendly hand. He also called for U.S. withdrawal from Formosa and merging of the nationalist Chinese and Peiping regimes by "peaceful negotiation."

Montgomery said he found the "Chinese despise the Americans."

"This is bad for the prospects of lessening tension between east and west," he said.

3 Playgrounds Tie In Junior Olympics

Neenah — Three playgrounds tied for first place in the first event of the recreation program's junior olympics. They are Taft, Washington and Cook, each with three points. Hoover received two points, Laudan one point and Doty, Green and Second ward none.

A bean bag throw for younger boys of age and those was held at Cook park, Staffed Cerny of Washington placed first, Tom Lemke of Hoover second and Steve Gehr of Taft third.

In the bean bag throw for those from 9 to 11 years of age, held at Hoover playground, Chris Jacobson of Cook placed first, Dave Zetzel of Taft was second and Leonard Schneider of Laudan was third.

Parolee Seizes Purse, Goes Back to Prison

Madison — A Racine man who served 14 years of a life term for murder was sent back to prison Tuesday as a parole violator after a purse-snatching episode.

Clarence Burnett, 40, who was paroled 10 weeks ago, admitted striking Alma Haldeman, knocking her down, and taking her purse containing $4.

Superior Judge Roy Proctor deferred sentencing on the assault-robbery charge and state welfare official returned Burnett to Waupun state prison.

Outlines Sewer Survey To Plant Engineers

Neenah — Robert Jones of the Jerry Donohue Engineering company of Sheboygan, itself. . . you will find that which is making a sanitary the understanding of God's and storm sewer survey for nearness and power equips the city, met this noon at the you with unfailing ability to Valley Inn with plant engineers of major Neenah industry to outline the survey and to secure their cooperation and assistance with several aspects of the survey."

Dairy Fitting Meetings Set

4 Farms Picked For Aiding Youths In Showing Cattle

Oshkosh — Four county-wide dairy fitting meetings have been scheduled for 9 to 10:30 a.m. Thursday in four different areas of Winnebago county.

County Agent Vernon W. Peroutky will be in charge of the northwest section meeting at the Marilyn Hahn farm in the town of Wolf River at which dairy calf selection will be demonstrated. Ray Hoelt of Omro and Willis DeVall of Winnebago, vocational agriculture teachers, will be in charge of the meeting for the southwest section at the Floyd Whitmarsh farm, town of Omro, which will feature showmanship techniques.

The northeast section meeting will be at the Earl Evans farm in the town of Clayton with Clarence Westfahl, 4-H agent, in charge of the demonstration on fitting techniques. Donald Tripp, assistant county agent, and Floyd Miller, Oshkosh vocational agriculture teacher, are in charge of the southeast section meeting at the Earl "Budd" German farm in the town of Nekimi at which dairy calf feeding will be stressed.

Give Technical Help
Purpose of these meetings is to give technical help to 4-H and FFA members enrolled in the dairy projects, as well as leaders, in the principles of preparing dairy animals for shows and fairs. The final goal is to improve the quality of dairy animals exhibited at the Winnebago county fair, Aug. 29 to Sept. 2.

These fitting meetings are being held previous to a county Dairyrama scheduled tentatively for July 27 at the Oshkosh fairgrounds. The purpose of the Dairyrama is to teach basic practices in preparing dairy animals for the Dairyrama.

Story Telling Topic for 4-H Child Care Meeting

Oshkosh — Story telling to child's stage of development, pre-school children was discussed by Miss Mary Malin, used in variety of ways, at a 4-H child care meeting Tuesday afternoon at a 4-H pervision.

Suggested activities for club members were visits to toy shops or the library, have how to read and tell a story, a toy workshop or plan a child's party.

Berries Easy Fruit To Freeze

Oshkosh — Strawberries are among the easiest fruits to freeze. They will have better flavor and color if sweetened before freezing. There will be less loss of vitamin C than in berries frozen without sugar, says Miss Lois Klusmeyer, county home agent.

National Guard Has Inspection

Camp McCoy — The nearly 9,000 members of Wisconsin's 32nd National Guard division had the top inspection of their 2-week summer encampment Tuesday.

Gen. Bruce Clarke, Ft. Monroe, Va., commanding general of the U.S. Continental Army command, and Maj. Gen. William S. Biddle, Chicago, deputy 5th Army commander, were escorted on an intensive inspection tour by Maj. Gen. W. F. Breipster, Milwaukee, division commander.

All units of the guard were alerted for tactical problems.

Withdraw Bar License Pending Work

Council Decides
Not to Reissue Until Finished

Menasha — The liquor license for the 10 Tayco street premises was withdrawn Tuesday by the common council and the fee refunded to Robert Hopfensperger.

If the building is remodeled and passes inspection by the health-officer and building-plumbing inspector, the license will be issued to its new operator, Mrs. Betty Jane Wolf.

Ald. William Zeininger had asked for issuance of the new license so the tavern could open July 1, start of the new license year.

Others disagreed, saying it would be bad policy to issue a license before the place was approved.

City Atty. Richard J. Steffens pointed out the necessary steps of having the ap-plicant's moral character checked and approved by Police Chief Peter Clark and the building certified as sanitary and in good condition by Health Officer H. O. Haugh and Inspector Allen E. Merrill.

On the roll call vote, Alds.
Robert Mielke and Raymond Zielinski voted against refunding the license money to Hopfensperger. Ald. Paul Laemmrich was excused from voting.

Mayor John Klein recommended against issuing the license until the building was remodeled.

Zeininger suggested the council could hold a special meeting to issue the license, but Klein reminded him the work on the building began in the last few days, although the building's owners signed an agreement and filed it with the city May 17, detailing the work to be done.
"They waited until the deadline. It is not an obligation of the council. It is their own fault," Klein commented.

Klein's appointments were ratified by the council for terms beginning July 1 on city boards and commissions.
They were Ed Waskiewicz and Mrs. Hayward Biggers, 3-year terms on the park and recreation board; Mrs. John Wilterding and John Dachelet, 3-year terms on the library board; Elmer Becker, 2-year term on the board of electrical examiners; and William Prosser, 5-year term on the board of review.

The council also: Approved cutting six trees on the west side of Appleton street for a bid price of $300.
The trees are along St. Mary church. Roll call showed Edward Stinski and Zielinski voting against, saying they wanted all eight trees on that side taken down.

Referred the quit-claim deed for the 10-acre site on rected a letter of thanks to company foundation. A stadium is to be built there.

partment of state audit to was received in the city office.

Set Aug. 2 for public hearing on the proposed multiple family dwellings on Harding street.

Referred to the planning commission a motion by Stinski to vacate Harding street for the two blocks between John and Melissa streets. City Engineer M. J. Noth advised the step would be poor unless a good exit is provided for Melissa street.

Even If Paid

County No Longer to Repair Private Roads in Townships

Oshkosh — Rural supervisors at Tuesday afternoon's county board meeting voiced
county board meeting voiced their disapproval of a county highway committee decision that county equipment no longer could be used for grading any private roads in the townships although the property owners along the road pay for that work.

Brandt

They didn't blame the highway committee, since they knew the action taken was to meet the law and court decisions. But it created extra problems for them and they thought of memorializing the state legislature to change the law or constitution to permit such work.

Letters sent to all town chairmen this year indicated the work no longer could be done by the county because of court decisions.

May Flow Snow
County highway equipment still may plow the snow on those private roads and it may use county graders to do up to $200 worth of soil conservation grading on private farms.

Those laws haven't been challenged in the courts, Dist.
Atty. Jack Steinhilber explained to the supervisors.

Supv. Herman Brandt, town of Omro, said that he was notified by the Omro postmaster that if the town does not repair a certain private road, mail service will be cut off.

And because it is a private road, the town cannot have it repaired, even though the people repay the cost.

Previously, the towns hired the county to maintain the roads at the town's expense and the residents along the roads paid a special assessment.

Lake Property Roads
Many of the roads are access roads to lake property and are not wide enough to meet the 3-rod width requirements needed before the town can take the road onto the town system.

Carpenter

A court decision read to the board mentioned it was illegal for towns to do work on private driveways. This led supervisors to raise the question if a private road used by school buses and mail carriers was in the same category.

They argued it was a public road even though privately owned since it was used as a thoroughfare by the public.
Supv. Earle Armstrong, town of Winneconne, asked if the town board could hire a private contractor to work on private roads and pay for the work with town funds if the town residents at an annual meeting approved such action.

Protests Decision Supv. Byron Gunz, town of Black Wolf, said he had six miles of such private roads in his township and he was on the highway committee. He added he had many problems as the result of that decision.
The opinion of Supv. Max

Carpenter, town of Rushford, county boards convention for discussion.
Supv. Gordon Hanson, town of Winchester, a highway committee member, told the highway committee.

Miracle

To this belief, Supv. Joseph Meigher replied that Waupaca county already was being sued for county highway equipment doing private work a decision had been rendered against Door county and the illegality of such work had been made to stock in Ozaukee county.

Supv. Warren Miracle, town board, "It's the law we are of Vinland, suggested that this afraid of and we should be matter be brought up at the law abiding citizens."

Board Names Mailahn County Zoning Officer

Will Issue All Building Permits;
Add New Employee

Oshkosh — Carl Mailahn, county tax description supervisor, Tuesday was named as the county zoning officer and will in the future issue all building permits.

The designation was made by the county board, which authorized the hiring of an additional male employee to assist the tax description supervisor with his work and also;

to help the tract index recorder, Linden Bell, at the disposition of the county treasurer.
This employee will be paid in the $200 to $250 a month pay bracket plus the cost of living bonus which now amounts to $80 per month.
Mailahn was granted a salary raise of $10 a month.
Building permits now are issued by County Clerk Nell A. Hoffmann. The change will take place as soon as an employee can be hired.

Supervisors also approved the hiring of a parttime clerk stenographer for the county guidance center at Neenah because of the increased work there.

Guidance Center Report
Dr. John W. Giebkink, psychologist at the center, said that from March 1 to June 1 the center received 79 cases and on Monday of this week went over the 100 mark.
There are about three children to every adult aided. Of the 79 treated during the 3-month period up to June 1, 18 were discharged as treated or were referred elsewhere because the center's service was not appropriate for their cases.

He told of 424 interviews being held during those three months with patients, parents, husband or wives or with agencies and schools which may have referred the cases to the center.

Upon recommendation of the personnel committee, the county board rejected a court house employees request to close the courthouse at 4:30 p.m. daily during June, July and August, instead of at 5 p.m.

Parttime Employees
It also provided that part-time employees should receive the same vacation time, sick leave and other benefits received by others on the ratio of the amount of time they work.

Dist. Atty. Jack Steinhilber ruled that granting judges a salary increase during their term of office was legal under the state law emergency period statute. Such raises may be granted to elected county, city, village and township officials under the law, he said.

As for the payment of the acting municipal judge, the bar association is trying to work out a solution. The county's pay of the acting municipal judge, Floyd D. Atherton, an Oshkosh justice of the peace, stopped after his 40th day of service for which he was paid $5 a day under state law. It's up to the judge to handle any additional pay beyond that date, the district attorney advised.

Retirement Another 'R' For K-C'ers

11 Employees, Wives Launch Program in 8-Week Course

Neenah — Retirement is to become another "R" in the Kimberly - Clark corporation classroom in a program to raise the caliber of the company's present program to help its people prepare for retirement years.

The proposed program, which is expected to become corporation-wide, had its beginning in an 8-week pilot course for 11 men and their wives from mill and office units in the headquarters area. The 11 couples met for two hours Tuesday evenings. Participants ranged in age from 35 to 64. At the end of the normal course, the group was asked to return for one morning of "not more than an hour" to discuss the merits and shortcomings of the program.

This session proved to be the most significant because the group stayed for over two hours discussing the program and emphasizing the "keen interest" in a pre-retirement course available to all Kimberly - Clark personnel 5 to 10 years before retirement.

1,178 Employees
Kimberly - Clark corporation personnel division director, D. H. Keck, said the company is concerned about a pre-retirement program because of its apparent necessity and a strong desire for it among employees. The company has 1,178 employees between 55 and 65 in its United States plants.

Personnel division staff men worked with the University of Wisconsin in planning the course in which participation was voluntary but membership limited for the round-table discussion program feature. Speakers presented their material during the first hour of the session. After a 10-minute "coffee break," the session resumed with open discussion. There were sessions on health and diet, on financial planning, wills and estates, taxes for the "over 65" and community resources for leisure.

Health, Diet
In the "critique" session, participants said they liked the husband and wife participation in pre-retirement talks, they wanted more discussion on health and diet because, one participant said, "if you aren't alive or well enough to enjoy retirement, what good is the rest of the discussion?"

The group also wanted a realistic, common-sense factual approach to financial management and they want all employees to have an opportunity for such a course. "It's what we all have been looking for," one said.

Assign Chaplain To USAR Unit

Menasha — The Rev. John Francis O'Brien, a teacher at Xavier High school Appleton, has received a direct reserve commission as first lieutenant in the army chaplains' corps. Father O'Brien will serve as Catholic chaplain of the 274th regiment (basic combat training) of the 84th division (training) based at the Menasha army reserve center. His date of rank was effective May 5. Two other chaplains, both Protestant, are assigned to the regiment.

K-C Represents Paper Industry in Display Making Tour of U. S.

Neenah — Kimberly-Clark corporation is representing the paper industry in the "Main Street, U.S.A." salute to American retailers. "The American Highway to Better Living" is the theme of a 2-car train which begins a 5-year national tour next September under the sponsorship of the Henry Ford museum and Greenfield village, Dearborn, Mich. Half of each car interior shows stores as they were in the 19th century, the other half presents displays of modern products from 26 leading United States corporations.

Kimberly - Clark's display is presented against a background of company products and depicts the manufacturing process in a 3-dimensional treatment that also touches on conservation practice.

Tuesday's Results:
Banta's 4, Bergstrom's 3 (11 in-ings)
Lakeview 7, Packagers 6
Ramblers 4, Main Office 6

Neenah — Lakeview scouted the Marathon Packagers 7-0 Tuesday night at the Recreation field to register its fifth straight win in the National division of the Twin City Industrial Softball league.

The win also gave Lakeview the berth in the league all-star game. It will meet the best of the six other teams June 30 at Jefferson park.

In other Tuesday clashes, the Marathon Ramblers moved back into second place with a 8-0 verdict over Main Office and Banta's advanced to third with an 11-inning 4-3 triumph over Bergstrom's.

Lakeview's Len Adams limited the Packagers to three hits. In five games, he has pitched three shutouts and allowed single runs in the two other contests.

5-Runs in Fifth
The winners scored five runs in the fifth on a walk, an error, singles by Kuepper, Hamman and Plamann and Bob Peck's double. They added two in the sixth.

Lakeview collected 10 hits off Don Brethauer, three by Kuepper and two by Peck. Ken Reinart had two of the three off Adams.

Doug Wiatrowski twirled a 3-hitter in the Ramblers' win over Main Office. Loser Darrell Schultz permitted six hits and walked four.

The Rams scored loners in the first, second and third and then erupted for five in the fourth. "Skip" Schuerer homered in the second. Lee Peterson posted two hits for Marathon and Pete Burghardt made two for Main Office.

Score on Error
Bergstrom's led Banta's 2-2 after 4 1/2 innings but the Publishers tied the score in the last of the fifth. Banta's tallied in the last of the 11th on a single by Bert Prelmesberger and a 3-base error.

Dick Wahlgren went the route for Banta's and allowed 11 hits and four walks. Banta's made 10 hits off Simonson and worked him for three walks.

Vought Loses In Meet Finals

Drops 6-3, 6-3 Test To Bob Stuckert in Fond du Lac Open

Fond du Lac — Don Vought, veteran Neenah netter, reached the finals of the Fond du Lac open tennis tournament here last weekend before losing to Bob Stuckert of Milwaukee 6-3, 6-3.

On the way to the finals, Vought downed Gil Jahnke, Milwaukee, 6-1, 6-0; John Bolatto, Milwaukee, 6-2, 6-0 and Frank White, Milwaukee, 6-1, 2-6, 6-2.

Menasha's Bob Erickson advanced to the semi-finals before bowing to Stuckert 6-0, 6-1. He defeated Frank Swanson, Madison, 6-2, 7-5, and Bill Boyd, Milwaukee, 6-2, 6-4.

Bob Curtis, formerly of Neenah and now of Beaver Dam, won over Eugene Heyerdahl, Fond du Lac, 4-6, 6-0, 6-3 and Bill Hoyt, Milwaukee, 6-2, 6-1, and lost to Wayne Cody, Milwaukee, 6-2, 6-2. Marv Semmelhack, Appleton, lost to Tim Holt, Milwaukee, 6-2, 1-6, 7-5 in his only match.

In doubles play, Curtis and Gordon Kotinek, Beaver Dam, lost to Ted Zimowicz - Al Adriano, Milwaukee, 6-3, 6-2 and Semmelhack and Leo Rideout, Madison, were beaten by Larry Goldbeck - Dick Neu, Madison, 6-4, 6-3.

Vogel's 38 Tops Gross Scorers In Golf Circuit

Menasha — Jim Vogel's 38 led low gross scorers in the John Strange Paper company Golf league Monday afternoon at the Bridgewood course.

Al Keefe carded a 42 and Bob Williams posted 43. Viller Zilisch led low net scorers with a 32. Vogel birdied the 11th and 12th holes and Williams was one under on No. 15.

The Byron Nelson team holds first place with 96 points. Its lead ranges from seven points over runnerup Sarazens to 31 over the last place Hogan entry.

St. Paul Bids for Fifth League Win

Neenah — Unbeaten St. Paul goes for its fifth straight Neenah Church Softball league win in a 7 p.m. contest today against St. Margaret Mary at the Recreation field. St. Margaret Mary, with a 3-2 record, has won its last three games.

The 8:30 encounter will bring together Methodist and Martin Luther, both possessing 2-2 logs.

Winnecoonne Man Pleads Innocent of Resisting Officers

Oshkosh — Albert R. Frerks, 30, Winnecoonne, in municipal court this morning pleaded innocent to charges of obstructing conservation officers and resisting arrest by sheriff's authorities.

Preliminary examination was set for 1:30 p.m. July 8, by Acting Municipal Judge Floyd D. Atherton. Bond was set at $200.

The charge of obstructing officers stemmed from the wardens' attempt to arrest Frerks' father, Edward, June 14, for catching a rock sturgeon out of season.

The complaint alleges that Albert drove his truck in behind the wardens obstructing their exit. A warrant was issued for his arrest and when sheriff's deputies attempted to serve the warrant, he resisted them, they allege.

the bride railing, instead of the sidewalk, he said. Children could fall in and drown or be injured, and "after it's done, it's too late," Clark observed.

Menasha Ball Leagues Begin '60 Schedules

Captains Chosen To Guide Teams In 4 Summer Circuits

Menasha — The Menasha Cub, Junior and Senior baseball leagues begin their schedules Thursday and the Mid-gets open play on Friday.

Because of the small registration for the Senior league, players of Junior league age will be permitted to play in both circuits.

Oshkosh Blanks Neenah Legion 2-0

Fenn Limits Twin City Team To 2 Hits in League Tangle

Oshkosh — Rick Fenn limited Neenah's Legion to two hits as Oshkosh scored a 2-0 Fox River Valley Junior Legion league win over the Hawley - Dieckhoff post here Tuesday night.

The loss was the third narrow decision for the Neenah squad, which dropped two other games by 1-run margins. It has one victory. Oshkosh owns a 2-0 league slate.

The Twin Cities were victims of a disputed play in the eighth inning which, had it gone their way, might have changed the result. With Mo-ry Handler on third and Fran Goetz on second, Jim Sauby hit to the shortstop, who tripped fielding the ball.

The umpire ruled that Goetz had interfered with the fielder and called Goetz out. Handler was sent back to third and the runners died on the bases.

Oshkosh Tallies
Oshkosh scored a run in the second on a walk to Don Le-her for the Panthers. Bill Beisenman, his steal of second and third and an error on catcher Dan Murphy. The winners ahs hit homers.

Building to Start on Church Wing

Fremont — The construction of an education wing on St. Paul Lutheran church is scheduled to begin today.

Voters of the congregation authorized the acceptance of bids from Lauer Brothers, Neenah, general contracting for $51,150; Langstadt, Neenah, electrical work for $6,240; and Towne Inc., Little Chute, heating, ventilating and plumbing for $11,851. The total cost is expected to be about $73,500 which includes the architects fee of McMahon Engineering, Menasha.

Plans call for a 66 by 44 foot basement and a 1-story addition. One large room will accommodate approximately seven classrooms on the lower level and five on the upper separated by folding partitions. There will be a superintendent's office, two lavatories and a new boiler room. The basement will be constructed adjacent to and enlarging the present kitchen.

The building will have a pre-stressed concrete floor, steel joiced roof construction and face brick with porcelain paneling.

Braves Take Double Bill From Giants

Schoendienst's 12th-Inning Single Off Reliever Jones Wins Nightcap; Aaron Hits 16th Homer in Opener

Milwaukee — The Milwaukee Braves picked a perfect time to sweep their first doubleheader of the season. It inched them closer to first place and sent the San Francisco Giants skidding farther off the pace.

The Braves, who had split four previous twin bills, belted the Giants, 9-6, in the opener and then earned a 2-1 decision in the nightcap on Red Schoendienst's twelfth-inning single Tuesday night before a crowd of 23,502 at County stadium.

Milwaukee's fourth straight triumph and seventh in the last eight games enabled the Braves to move within 3½ games of the pace-setting Pittsburgh Pirates, who edged St. Louis, 3-2. The third-place Giants now are 5½ games off the lead.

The Braves and Giants renew their battle tonight in the third meeting of the 4-game series. Lew Burdette, who has a 7-2 record, is the Milwaukee choice to oppose San Francisco southpaw Johnny Antonelli, holder of a 3-4 mark.

The 2-hit relief pitching of rookie right-hander Ron Piche featured the Braves' victory in the twilight game. The 25-year-old French-Canadian took over in the sixth and preserved George Brunet's first major league victory.

Crandall Ties It

Brunet surrendered a run in the second, but Del Crandall tied the count in the Milwaukee half with his eleventh homer. The Braves went ahead in the fourth as Hank Aaron belted his sixteenth homer for two runs and Wes Covington doubled, took third on an error and scored on a sacrifice fly.

The Giants' power erupted on Brunet in the fifth as Willie Mays hit a 3-run homer and Orlando Cepeda followed with a solo blast into the bleachers in left.

But the Braves bounced back to match the 4-run upriser as Brunet gave way to a pinch-hitter. A walk, a double by Billy Bruton, a single by Johnny Logan, Eddie Mathews' sacrifice fly and Joe Adcock's ninth homer did the damage.

Milwaukee added another run in the sixth as Bruton doubled and scored on a single by Logan. The bats the Giants could do against Piche after that was a pinch homer by Dale Long with two in the ninth.

Juan Pizarro and Bob Buhl combined for the second game.

Floyd and 'Ingo' May Have Earned $1,000,000 Each for Title Fight

Tax Bite May Keep Them From Meeting Again This Year

BY MURRAY ROSE
New York — Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson have a problem that television have a problem that should happen to everyone. They would like to fight again $3,000,000. Of this, he said within 90 days and earn may be a million bucks apiece. But they may not be able to afford it this year because of the tremendous tax bite.

The two young heavyweights, crowned champion on Patterson, and dethroned at Johansson, may have earned a record purses of a million dollars each for their second fight Monday night.

So the answer to whether there will be a rubber match this year most likely will be furnished by their lawyers and financial advisers.

The explosive fight, in which Patterson regained the title by flattening the Swede in the fifth round, lured 31,892 paying fans and $24,891 to the Polo grounds.

Irving Kahn, the president of TelePrompster which handled the closed circuit television, said the extras will gross about $3,000,000. Of this, he said approximately, the fighters should collect between $800,000 and $900,000 each in addition to $175,000 each from the gate receipts.

Gene Tunney set an all-time high of $600,445 for his second fight with Jack Dempsey at Chicago in 1927, an era in which the tax bite was mild compared to what it is today.

At separate press conferences Tuesday, Johansson and Patterson said they would like the third fight within 90 days. Naturally the promoting Feature Sports, Inc., was more than anxious to oblige.

Patterson, elated at becoming the first former heavyweight king to regain the crown, said he had a contract for a third fight with Ingo and intended to fulfill it.

"If I should win," he said, "I would like to negotiate with other contenders, possibly Sonny Liston."

Liston, the hottest and heaviest hitter among the contenders, meets Zora Folley at Denver July 18.

"I want the return," said Johansson, 27, who suffered the first defeat of his pro career. "Patterson was fresher and stronger this time. He caught me with a good punch and that was that. Maybe next time it will be different. I always said anything will happen in a fight. This time it happened the better for him. The next time it can be my turn."

West Germany's Armin Hary hits the finish line in Zurich, Switzerland, Tuesday to become the first man to run the 100-meter dash in 10 seconds flat. Hary twice bettered the world mark of 10.1 in the 100-meter heats of a 7-nation track and field meet. His first try was cancelled because of an irregular start.

White Sox Shade Orioles in Ninth To End Loss Skein

Landis Homers Off Estrada; Yanks Take Half-Game Lead

By The Associated Press
Jim Landis carries the lowest batting average among Chicago White Sox regulars these days, but his ninth-inning homer Tuesday night might be the shot the ball club needs.

Landis, homer broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Sox a 4-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles. The triumph snapped a 4-game losing streak.

Before Landis' homer, Frank Baumann put in a brilliant piece of relief work. In the top of the ninth, Brooks Robinson doubled off Gerry Staley and the next batter sacrificed.

Baumann, aided by a fine fielding play on the part of Roy Sievers retired the next two batters to end the inning.

Beat Larry

Mickey Mantle's hobbled by hammerin', Whitey Ford's no longer a question mark and the New York Yankees have junked Frank Lary's jinx for a half-game lead in the American league race.

The Mick, limping on bum legs, drove in three runs with a pair of homers in support of Ford's 4-hit shutout for a 6-0 job on the Tigers and Lary at Detroit Tuesday night. It was the first victory in almost a month for Ford, who had lost three in a row for only the second time in his 9-year career.

It also was the Yankees' second victory of the year over Lary — a right-hander they had managed to beat just twice in 14 decisions over two seasons. It was New York's fifth straight win. Cleveland defeated Washington, 5-4, and Kansas City cracked Boston, 11-7, despite two home runs and four RBI by Ted Williams.

Extends Slump

Ford (3-5), the stubby southpaw charged with the Yankees' only two losses in 17 games, bounced back by giving up nothing but singles.

Foxes Move Into Second Place, Half-Game Out of Lead; Powell Leads Attack With 2 Triples

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

If Fox Cities pitcher John Papa and first baseman "Boog" Powell continue finding the range, as they did in Tuesday night's 6-3 win over Des Moines, the Foxes' chances of remaining a pennant threat look bright.

Papa, a fireballing but usually wild right-hander who had previously averaged 10 walks a game, doled out only four passes to the Demons as he became Fox Cities' first 4-game winner of the season.

Powell, the Foxes' strong-boy who has belatedly begun tapping his great potential as a power hitter, blasted a pair of triples.

An enthusiastic Goodland field crowd of 2,564 watched the Foxes stop the Demons for the third consecutive time since a series-opening loss and climb to second place, just a half-game shy of Three-I league-leading Sioux City. The "Little League Booster Night" gathering was the second largest of the home season (exceeded only by the 4,102 on "Northside Advancement Night" May 18).

After the Foxes snapped a 2-2 tie with four runs in the second, Papa made the margin stand up with authoritative pitching, abetted by excellent fielding. It was the first winning performance turned in by the 1900 Foxes in three tries before crowds of 2,000 or better.

Foxes Manager Earl Weaver has nominated Arne Thorsland to face the Demons tonight in the finale of the 5-game series. The Foxes travel to Cedar Rapids Thursday.

Fox Cities beat Des Moines, 6-3, Tuesday night to move into second place in the Three-I league. The Foxes are only a half game behind Sioux City, which lost at Green Bay, 3-2.

Dick Smith smacked a 2-run homer in the fourth inning to beat Sioux City, which had the winning runs on base in the ninth, but Terry Barber got the Soos out with a double-play pitch.

Cedar Rapids dropped into third place when Al Weis hit a 10th-inning homer to let Lincoln win, 6-5. The second game of a scheduled doubleheader was called off because of heavy fog.

Ron Hunt's triple produced three Cedar Rapids runs in its 5-run fifth inning. Manly Johnston and Al Alvarez also homered for Lincoln.

Burlington's Bobby Sanchez pounded four runs home to help Burlington beat Topeka, 8-5. He and Ed Napoleon hit consecutive homers in the third. A doubleheader was originally planned, but was switched to a single game because of a wet field.

Braves fans can count on outstanding performance from Johnny Logan, the three-time all-star shortstop who batted .291 and fielded a sparkling .975 last year.

Johnny stars at County Stadium—and at the Logan family grill! "I like to choose by own steaks and grill them myself," Johnny says. "My choice is Tenderay steak from Krambo. Tenderay gives me big-league flavor and tenderness everytime."

U. S. Choice beef earns the name Tenderay only after forty-four hours of extra care in specially-lighted, rigidly

Runs 100 Meters In Amazing :10.0

West Germany's Armin Hary
Eclipses Recognized World Mark

Zurich, Switzerland — (U) — came the first man in history to clock 10 seconds flat in the 100-meter dash.

Hary served notice he's the one United States sprinters will have to beat in the Olympics in Rome in a 7-nation meet in Zurich Letzigrund stadium — possibly the fastest track in Europe.

He entered the race at the last moment. "I didn't intend to run," he said happily Wednesday. "But Manfred Germar, a teammate of mine was injured and he had to withdraw. So I decided to take his place."

Hary is no fluke. In 1958, he won the European 100-meter title, then was caught in 10 seconds in a meet in West Germany. But the German AAU disallowed the mark because of a slight decline in the track.

Tuesday, in his heat, he got away while the rest of the field still was at the post. The starter apparently thought all was in order because he permitted the race to go on.

But when the clockers looked at their watches, they couldn't believe their eyes. Hary was caught in 9.9 by one timer and 10 flat by the other two. The referee immediately decided not to allow the time to stand.

Hary, upset, protested. The heat was ordered rerun.

Again Hary was away like a shot, and again the clockers gasped when they consulted their watches. One had him in 10.1 and the other two in 10 flat. This time they could find nothing wrong. The wind was 0.6 meters per second, well within the allowable limits.

The official world record is 10.1 held jointly by Willie Williams, Ira Murchison and Leamon King, all of the United States.

Wendt Hurls No-Hitter in Major Loop

John Wendt tossed a no-hitter to pitch the Cubs over the Reds, 19-0, in the Appletan Recreation department's Major Loop Baseball league.

Despite a 1-hitter by loser Bill Ullwelling, the Giants edged the Reds, 6-4. Alan Hankwitz was the winner. Warren Lutz twirled a 7-hitter to give the Giants a 9-3 victory over the Braves. Hankwitz banged out three hits.

The Braves edged the Dodgers, 9-6, behind Tom Besch's 4-hit work. Tom Gregorius swatted a pair of hits for the Braves.

No-Hitter Highlights Opening Action in Cub Boys' League

VFW's Bill Van Boxtel pitched a 1-0, no-hit win over BPOE to highlight first-week action in the National division, Cub Boys' baseball league play. Dave Nowad, the loser, allowed only one hit to Rick Stach, who later scored on an error.

Earlier, BPOE had overcome a 7-run deficit to beat Red Owl, 18-8. Nowak was the winner, and Mark Catlin III led BPOE with four hits in four trips.

Cloud Buick stopped Acme Press, 10-3, behind Tom Jones' 3-hitter. Jones hit a 2-run double. Valley Iron whipped VFW, 14-3, with Kurt Miller and Don Plaman getting two hits each.

Pitches 1-Hitter
In Cub Boys' American division action, also sponsored by the Appletan Recreation department, Don Haynes pitched a 1-hitter as the Fox Cities Foxes swamped Berggren's, 16-0. Pat Fitzgerald had three hits.

Pat Flanagan hit a 2-run homer in the final inning to give Neumann's Service a 3-2 win over Herb's Service. Appletan Oil won an 8-7, extra-inning game from Valley Ready Mix. Ray Bruder had two hits for the winners, while Bob Sagunsky got three hits—including a triple—for the losers.

Viking Sewing Machines rallied for four runs with two out in the final inning to beat Pond's, 5-4. Dan Hurley drove in the tying and winning runs with a double. Billy Deeg drove in all the Pond runs.

In Minor Boys league play—American division—Elm Tree edged Krambo, 3-0, as Dick Moen beat Dave Krueger in a battle of 2-hitters. Moen fanned 11. UCT overpowered the Junior Optimists, 12-1, behind Jack Schultz' 2-hitter.

Grishaber's nipped Yellow Cab, 8-7. Dick Kirk was the winning pitcher and got three hits. Appletan Police beat Fountain Lumber, 6-2, behind the steady pitching of Jim Thielman. Ron Rieck led the Police offense with three hits.

Cloud Buick and Voecks Brothers scored National division, Minor league, wins. Cloud pounded Home furniture, 25-0. Tom Parnell hit a triple and a double.

The Voecks win was by an 8-5 count in extra innings. Tom Abel homered for the winners.

Two College 'Flunk-Outs' to Play in American Grid Loop

Dallas — (U) — The American Football league, which opens its first campaign in September, will have two college undergraduates, although there's a rule against it.

However, says Joe Foss, AFL commissioner, they will be the only ones allowed to play and the rule will be adhered to hereafter.

Foss said guard Ernie Wright, junior at Ohio State, and tackle Jack Sherer, sophomore at Miami, would play with the Los Angeles Chargers and New York Titans, respectively. He thus reversed a stand taken a week ago when the rival National Football league complained about the signings, pointing out that both leagues had a rule that prevented taking a collegian until his class had graduated.

Both players had flunked out of college when signed. Foss said their contracts had already been approved and for this reason they would be allowed to play.

Jack Kramer May Consider Net Comeback

Would be Interested If Wimbledon Thrown Open to Pros

Wimbledon — (U) — Jack Kramer, 1947 Wimbledon champion, said Tuesday he may try a comeback if the major tennis title is thrown open to professionals next year as expected.

"I would like to be in on the beginning of a new era," the 38-year-old tennis promoter said. "Given a month or two, I think I could go out there and give them a run for their money."

Kramer has disc trouble and admitted he was hampered by a steel brace on his back.

"If you listened to your friends," he said, "you never would get out there. They have convinced me in the past that it's a mistake to look too bad. But I don't know. This is worth considering."

Kramer confirmed reports he is asking $15,000 to put his top-name tennis circus into the Wimbledon championship next year—if the open tournament principle is approved in Paris later this year.

Former Ring Inspector 'Sharkey' Stein Dies
Shawano — (U) — Funeral services were to be held here today for Albert F. "Sharkey" Stein, 72, inspector for the Wisconsin Boxing commission for more than 30 years, who died of a heart ailment in a hospital Sunday.

Stein, who never boxed professionally, was nicknamed for Tom Sharkey, the former heavyweight, because of neighborhood scraps as a boy in Milwaukee, his hometown. He moved to Shawano from Milwaukee 20 years ago.

Foxes down with one hit—a Powell triple to left center in the fifth—the rest of the way. Powell is meeting the ball better than he has at any time this season. The Key West (Fla.) whacker is hitting .367 for the last eight games, with seven extra-base knocks and nine RBIs. He has brought his average up to .261 — his high-water mark for the season.

The Demons got their final run in the seventh when Ripken let a third strike get away then threw past first in an effort to get the batter.

In the ninth, the Demons got a pair of 1-out singles (by pinch-hitter Bob Lipski and Kerns), but Papa fogged the third strike past dangerous Don Lightner and Reimer.

Waste No Time Papa struck out seven batters—all in the final five innings—and used two of the whiffs to quell a Demon uprising in the ninth.

The Foxes wasted no time getting back two runs in their half of the first. After two out, Pete Ward laced a triple to center. "Photi" Anthony walked. Powell blasted one off the right field fence for three bases and two runs.

The Foxes chased Demon starter Jack McCracken in their game-winning third inning. Frank Montgomery walked. Bob Saverine was safe on shortstop Kerns' bobble. Ward walked to jam the bases. Anthony walked, forcing in the tie-breaking run.

After Powell struck out, dependable Cal Ripken drove a hit between third and short for two runs. Ray Youngdahl's sharp single to center played Anthony and brought on new comer Bob Baillargeon, a right-hander.

victory. Pizarro allowed only one run and seven hits, three of them of the infield variety, before leaving for a pinch-hitter in the ninth. Buhl surrendered only one hit in three innings to post his seventh victory. He has lost three.

The Giants nipped Pizarro for a run in the fourth on a bad hop double down the third-base line, a safe bunt and a sacrifice fly. The Braves tied the count in their half on a single by Bruton, an infield out and a double by Mathews.

Starter Jack Sanford was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the top of the 12th and the Braves didn't waste much time in belting Sam Jones for the winning run.

With one out, speedy Al Spangler laid down a perfect bunt and took second on a wild pitch. After Charlie worked a walk, Schoendienst rapped a line drive over the shortstop's head to score Spangler.

Floyd 'Ingo' Rematch May Be Delayed

wrong in the fifth round when he was knocked down twice by left hooks, the last time for the count.

"I think I was a little low (meaning with his hands)," he said. "I must have thought he was going to the body. And I kept my chin up a little high."

Why didn't he storm after Patterson in the second round when he appeared to have hurt Floyd with a high right to the head?

"He was just trying to look bad," said Ingo. Patterson confirmed this. "It was pretty sure he was not too bad and was playing that he was hurt bad. I thought I would have plenty of time to get him in a long fight."

Of this moment, Patterson said "It did hurt but not as much as it looked. I hoped he would come charging in like he did in the first fight (when) Johansson stopped him in the third round). Unfortunately, he didn't."

Third Fight? Asked if he thought the public wanted a third fight, Patterson said: "I think so, if you look at it this way. In the first fight I definitely was overconfident from what I had read. I was surprised. In the second fight Ingemar more or less underestimated me because things had been so easy for him. The third should decide the championship."

Ingo had a bruise under his left eye, a slight cut close to his nose, and a swollen left ear. He said, however, that he felt fine.

"I was in great shape," he said. "Will I train differently? No, except that I will get sparring partners who rush more."

Johansson said he hoped to catch a jet plane today for a week's stay in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Then he said he planned to go to Switzerland.

Patterson, unmarked and looking more like a schoolboy than a 25-year-old champion, was asked what he planned to do in the next few days.

"I won't train, that's for sure."

while extending the Tigers' scoreless slump through 27 innings.

Lary, now 22-3 lifetime against the Yanks, was beaten in the fourth when Roger Maris tripled and came in on a wild pitch. He gave up 11 of New York's 14 hits, including both of Mantle's shots.

The White Sox jumped past Detroit into fourth place. Landis, tagging reliever Chuck Estrada (6-3) with the defeat, also drove in a second-inning run and nailed a Baltimore runner at the plate with a peg from center field. Baumann (4-3) won it.

A 2-out, 2-run double by Johnny Temple in the sixth brought the Indians from behind against Washington's Pedro Ramos (3-9). "Mudcat" Grant (5-2), padded his career record over the Nats to 13-0, but needed Johnny Klippstein's three innings of shut-out relief.

Southpaw Bud Daley (10-2), the AL's top winner, took his ninth in a row with relief help from Bob Trowbridge in a 4-run Boston eighth. Jerry Cal- (2-7) dropped his seventh straight failing to get a man out in a 5-run first. Jerry Lumpe and Marv Throneberry homered for the A's. Williams, hitting eight home runs in two weeks, now has 11 for the year and a career total of 503.

victory in eight games after scoring twice in the fifth against Bob Gibson (0-1). Singles by Bill Maseroski, Bill Virdon and Dick Groat, who also knocked in a third-inning run, did the job. Face then saved it, coming on with a run home and men on second and first with none out in the ninth.

The relief ace picked off pinch-runner Curt Simmons at second and then struck out Daryl Spencer and pinch-hitter Stan Musial.

Post Homers A 2-run homer by Wally Post, just returned to the Reds, beat the Dodgers and southpaw Johnny Podres (6-6) in the fifth inning. Bob Purkey (6-3) was the winner. He gave up 2-run homers by Norm Larker and John Roseboro in the sixth. Larker, 4 - for-4 took over the NL batting lead with a .34 average.

Ernie Banks of the Cubs jumped into the major league home run lead by hitting his nineteenth and twentieth in the first game. A 2-out single by Tony Curry decided it, and defeated reliever Glen Hobbie (6-9).

The second game, to be completed tonight, was played under protest by the Cubs when the Phils took the lead with two unearned runs in the fifth. Cub Manager Lou Boudreau protested when Tony Gonzalez was allowed to score from first after a fan picked up a wild peg by Chicago second baseman Don Zimmerman.

Harrison Nine Will Meet LC-K Tonight

Little Chute - Kimberly will entertain Harrison at 8 p.m. today in Kimberly.

The defending Fox River Valley league champion has fallen below the .500 mark again with a 3-4 record. Harrison has seven straight losses. It came closest to victory the last time the teams met, dropping a 3-1 verdict.

Valley Fair is scheduled to play host to runnerup Kaukauna at 8 p.m. Thursday at Goodland field. The Klubbbers trail Menasha by one game but could cut the margin in half with a win.

ARD Schedules Five Softball Make-Ups

Five makeup softball games for this week have been announced by the Appleton Recreation department.

At 6 p.m. today AAL meets Philman in a Fraternal league contest at the Franklin diamond, replacing the postponed Valley-Ready Mix-Sammy's Classic league affair.

Thursday, the Police play the Post-Crescent in an American Industrial league game at 6 p.m. at the Franklin diamond, replacing the ACA-Pond's Fraternal league tilt.

Three Fraternal makeups are scheduled for 6 p.m. Friday. They are: St. Paul vs. COF, Roosevelt No. 2; YMCA vs. Pond's, Wilson No. 2; and VFW vs. UCT, Franklin.

Appeal to Public For Arena Facts

Judge Opens Hearing; Requests For Information Aiding Probe

Green Bay. — Municipal Judge Donald Gleason opened a John Doe hearing into the operations of the Veterans Memorial arena today with a public appeal to any persons who can help the inquiry to "come forward voluntarily and give their testimony."

Judge Gleason made his appeal after discussing for the record his decision to hold the inquiry in public.

In response to questions from Judge Gleason, Dist. Atty. Alexander Grant said a public hearing would not impair the hearing and that secrecy is not needed to induce witnesses to testify. State law provides that John Doe hearings may be secret.

Judge Gleason said: "I make a public appeal so that every person who has pertinent material may come forward so that at this hearing all possible facts will be included in the record," he said.

The hearing opened at 9:15 a.m. before about 35 spectators, including Jocko Braley, arena manager. It is expected to continue until Friday or Saturday.

First Witness
Sup. Leonard Jahn, a member of the county board arena committee, was the first witness. Jahn was among the most active promoters on the board in the effort for a veterans memorial which brought about construction of the arena by Brown county.

All of the preliminary research and investigating trips to other cities indicated the arena now has an operating deficit of more than $80,000 in addition to a like total of appropriations to cover budget deficits.

"It was always figured, from our interviews also, that the war memorial would make its own operating expenses. I know of no time that anything else was ever considered," Jahn testified.

Before construction plans were approved, Jahn said he and John Somerville, arena architect, went to New York to meet with a committee of the International Association of Auditorium Managers. The committee was given, in addition to the plans, economic data about the Green Bay area, Jahn said.

"They informed us we should make our operating expenses but that there was no guarantee of that fact," Jahn said.

The same was true in all managers, Jahn said.

Advisory Committee
Jahn described the function of a citizens advisory committee, whose chairman was John Torinus, Press-Gazette managing editor. The committee's job included interviewing applicants for manager and it was given this job because of the varied background of its members and to remove the selection from possible politics of the county board, he said.

The first manager recommended was Morris Snyder, North Bay, Ont., who turned the job down, Jahn said.

Braley became aware of the opening when James Gallagher, a former Green Bay hockey promoter, took a team to Memphis, Tenn., Jahn said.

Braley ran "a skating rink" in Memphis, Jahn said.

Grant produced a 1957 membership list of the International Association of Auditorium Managers to show that Braley was not a member that year.

Jahn testified that he was unable to find in the court-house the applications submitted for manager. He said Torinus wanted the district attorney to read them if they were found.

Public Rights
In outlining his reasons for a public hearing, Judge Gleason cited Press-Gazette articles to show that "the subject matter under inquiry is already one of general public knowledge."

"It is my opinion that this is no time for secrecy. Now is the time to get the facts and the truth openly and in public. This is particularly true because the inquiry concerns public employees, public money, and a public institution," Judge Gleason said in prefacing his appeal for all information.

Methodist Men to Hold First Meeting

Methodist Men of the First Methodist church will have their first meeting at 7 p. m. Thursday in the church parlors.

Officers will be elected and they will be installed by the Rev. Stanford Strosahl, district superintendent of the Methodist church.

The program will include a slide-lecture by the Rev. Mr. Strosahl entitled "God in Nature."

The group was recently organized during a visit from Don Calame, Chicago, director of Methodist Men. The club's object will be to serve as a clearing house for the talents of men to serve in the improvement of the church. It will assist the present church program.

Leigh Wolfe, former lay leader, served as the chairman of the nominating committee to pick the slate of officers.

Kenosha Man to Head Bankers Association

Milwaukee. — Edward Ruets, president of the Kenosha National bank, Tuesday was named president of the Wisconsin Bankers Association.

Carl A. Niederman, president of the Oshkosh National bank, was elected vice president and John H. Matheson, president of the Merchants and Savings bank, Janesville, treasurer.

Fined $10 for Violating New Boating Law

Green Bay. — John A. Deltour, 45, 117 S. Badger avenue, was fined $10 in municipal court Tuesday after pleading guilty to violating a new boating regulation requiring a life preserver for each passenger in a boat.

Deltour, arrested over the weekend by Brown county Conservation Warden Robert Green, was operating a rented 14-foot motor boat and was carrying four teenage passengers with him. None of the party had life preservers, Green said, although they were available where the boat was rented.

Green arrested Deltour on Green bay near Long Tail point, village of Howard.

Reelect Appletton Man Vice President of State Firefighters

Fond du Lac. — Harold Krammer, of the Appletton fire department, was reelected vice president of the Wisconsin State Association of Firefighters at the organization's annual meeting here.

Other officers are Maurice Nason, Madison, president, and Edward Scriborski, La Crosse, secretary-treasurer. Eugene Mucklin, Kenosha, was named to the executive board.

State Begins Action Against Bleacher Firms

Asks Damages Under Antitrust Law; U. S.
Already Fined Four

Madison. — Atty. Gen. John W. Reynolds announced today that he has instituted proceedings in the U. S. District court in Madison to collect damages from seven corporations which manufactured and sold bleachers to the state and its subdivisions.

The suit is filed under the federal antitrust laws, which provide for triple damages. Four of the seven firms were fined $10,000 to $20,000 each Monday by U. S. District Judge Robert Tehan in Milwaukee for illegal restraint of trade in the sale and distribution of folding gymnasium bleachers.

Not to Duplicate
The four are Brunswick corporation (formerly the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company), Chicago; Wayne Iron works, Wayne, Pa.; Universal Bleacher company, Champaign, Ill.; and Fred Medart Manufacturing company, St. Louis, Mo.

Also named by Reynolds as defendants in the damages suit were Consolidated Foundries and Manufacturing cor-

Sacred Heart Novena Will End With 40-Hour Devotion

Novena services are in progress at Sacred Heart Catholic church, says Msgr. Emil Schmitt, pastor.

The Rev. Joseph F. Gregory, S. J., Jesuit missionary priest and regional director of the Apostleship of Prayer of Minneapolis, is conducting the novena services and delivering the sermons.

Tuesday Sermon
The novena will be brought to a solemn close with 40 hours' devotion, scheduled for today, Thursday, and Friday of this week.

Tuesday night, Father Gregory stressed the fact of "God's infinite and everlasting love for the human race." He compared the divine love with the love which every mother has for her child. "This love," said Father Gregory, "was not merely climaxed in the historical event of Christ's sacrifice on Calvary."

"Rather he pointed out, 'It has been perpetuated in the holy sacrifice of the mass, in which followers of Christ can participate, thereby raising their ordinary lives to the level of supernatural merit, pleasing in the sight of the Heavenly Father.'"

The 40-hour devotion began at 8 a. m. today, when the solemn mass of exposition will be offered. The blessed sacrament will be exposed for adoration throughout the three days of the annual prayer. Friday at 7:30 p. m. the entire parish will take part in the solemn closing services, which will include a sermon by Father Gregory, chanting of the litanies of the saints, procession of the blessed Sacrament and Benediction.

Million Dollars Said Collected for Lutherans
Milwaukee. — G. W. Sampe, treasurer of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran synod, Southeastern Wisconsin district, reported Tuesday that more than a million dollars had been collected for synod purposes in the biennium. Charities received $700,000.

he said at the district meeting here that has drawn 216 pastors, teachers and lay delegates from 113 congregations.

The Rev. Arthur F. Halboth of Milwaukee was reelected district president and the Rev. Adolph Buenger of Kenosha, first vice president.

Aristotle Wise in Philosophy, but He Had Strange Ideas on Eyesight

Aristotle may have been an outstanding philosopher but he wasn't a very dependable authority on eyesight, the Better Vision Institute points out.

However, considering the fact that he was born in 384 B.C., perhaps it's surprising that his writings contain as much scientific truth as they do.

Sight, he says, is of an aqueous nature and is situated about the brain, which is moist and cold. Like many old-timers, he believed, and therefore the things were made visible by the emission of light from the eyes.

We know now that rays of light from an object enter the eyes, which take a picture of the object and transmit it to the seeing centers in the brain. But we can go along with Aristotle's statement are seldom bald because a certain "moisture" which would normally be used for nourishment of their hair. And we see more accurately with one eye than with two, partly due to the fact that when we close one eye "the whole vision power is directed to the other eye so that it is thus able to look more intently." (Actually, says the institute, a normally-sighted person sees about 12 per cent better with both eyes than with one.)

Aristotle's views on the association of eye traits and character traits can only be classed as ridiculous. "Great and full eyes," he declares, "...show the person to be for the most part slothful, bold, envious, a bad concealer of secrets, intellectually weak and yet very conceited."

Suspicious Nature "He whose eyes are hollow in his head... is suspicious, malicious, of an extraordinary memory... proud, envious and treacherous; but he whose eyes are, as it were,

Tab Hunter Airs Views On Hollywood

Actor Claims Movie Capital Losing to European Countries

BY BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

Hollywood — (U) — As if things didn't look gloomy enough, here's Tab Hunter with the observation:

"I'm afraid Hollywood is losing its position as movie capital of the world. Everything seems to be shifting toward Europe."

Hunter, who didn't look gloomy enough, here's Tab Hunter with the observation:

"But even without the strikes, it looks as though Hollywood is losing out. Movies are making more money in foreign countries than they do in the United States. So why not shoot the pictures abroad?"

Americans Lazy
"Americans are too lazy to go to the movies as a habit anymore."

He has appeared creditably in top films and has a wide following among the younger set.

Now TV will reap what the movies have sown.

"I like the picture business," he declared. "But an actor just can't rely on it any more. Sure, I could work all the time in cheap pictures or

Record by Fendermen Stays in First Place

'Mule Skinner Blues' Keeps Top Spot for Second Week in Fox Cities

BY DICK DISC

Top tune of the week for the second week in a row in the Fox Cities is the Fendermen's recording of "Mule Skinner Blues" the folk ditty that reminds one of a pack of stampeding mules.

In the runner-up spot is the Hollywood Argyles story of the comic caveman "Alley-Oop."

One new tune appears in the top 10 this week. It's "Look For A Star" a number that was reviewed just last week.

Here's the top 10:

1. "Mule Skinner Blues" by the Fendermen.
2. "Alley-Oop" by the Hollywood Argyles.
3. "Burning Bridges" by Jack Scott.
4. "Jump Over" by Freddie Cannon.
5. "Happy-Go-Lucky Me" by Paul Evans.
6. "Paper Roses" by Anita Bryant.
7. "I'm Sorry" by Brenda Lee.
8. "Please Help Me" by Hank Locklin.
9. "Everybody's Somebody's Fool" by Connie Francis.
10. "Look For A Star" by Gary Mills.

Looking back, five years ago "Honey Babe" was a big tune and 10 years ago, accord-

Vote to Buy Land Near Capitol for Eventual Use

Washington—(U)—The house appropriations committee today approved the purchase of two blocks of property near the capitol for $5 million.

Its recommendation that the land be acquired now for eventual use by congress was contained in a $40,215,700 appropriation bill scheduled for house consideration later this week.

The property is east of the old house office building. It now is the site of small businesses establishments and residences, including the Capitol Hill club, a club for Republicans.

The committee did not say to what use the property would be put but eventually it is expected to be the site of another annex to the Library of Congress. The library now has one annex structure.

The committee turned down a White House request for $366,800 for further expansion of international trade fairs and trade missions as part of the president's special international program.

singers still sound as though they have heavy colds.

"White Satin" with the George Shearing quintet and orchestra. Back to strings again, but this time with a piano added. The music is quite a jump for the teens. It's a "live" performance with for mood listening. Old stand-guitars, screams, and the Everlys. You'll hear "Just In Case," "Memories Are Made of This," and others. Both album of rich, soothing sound.
